NATO Meeting Hears Brandt

Chancellor Backs Talks With Russia

BONN (AP) — Chancellor Willy Brandt told the 15 NATO foreign ministers today that any agreement with the Russians to reduce troops in Europe "should not bring any military disadvantage for either side."

Brandt welcomed the results of President Nixon's visit to Moscow, saying that the "elimination of confrontation and, as President Nixon put it, turning confrontation to cooperation, can but have favorable effects for us all and therefore for the alliance."

The West German chancellor addressed the opening of the annual two-day spring meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's foreign ministers. Earlier in the day, Secretary of State William P. Rogers met with Brandt and told him of Nixon's mission to Moscow, including his agreement with the Russians that the European security conference which Moscow has been urging should be divided into separate conferences on East-West cooperation and on troop reductions.

Brandt told the NATO ministers that a "security conference should serve to explore the paths of cooperation between East and West and in doing so should not ignore the military aspects." But he warned that any reduction of troops "should meet the requirement of the alliance's undiminished security, should not bring any military disadvantage for either side, and should thereby help to reduce the dangers of confrontation. Thus in both projects the concepts of security and defense are linked together."

Crash Near Laurelville Claims Two

Eight Others Injured In Bloody Mishap

Two lives were claimed in a severe head-on collision Monday evening in Hocking County which has placed seven other persons in Columbus hospitals. Two of the hospitalized are listed in very critical condition.

Dead are a 28-year-old housewife, Sandra Haynes Bailey of near Tarlton and driver of one of the vehicles, Norman P. Ramey, 33, of Route 3, McArthur.

Mrs. Bailey was pronounced dead on the scene by the Hocking County coroner and taken to the Hill funeral home in Kingston where arrangements for her funeral are being made today.

A rescue helicopter manned by Ohio National Guardsmen was brought in to rush Ramey to University Hospital in Columbus where he died.

DEATH CARS — This camera angle of the two car collision on Route 180 north of Laurelville about 6:30 p.m. Monday tells the story of a double fatality. Athens County Highway Patrolmen and witnesses not 50 feet from the crash say the car at left, driven by Norman P. Ramey, 33, McArthur, apparently increased speed coming out of a curve and went left of center. Witnesses say the driver of the car at right, John R. Bailey, headed towards Laurelville, apparently saw the car coming in his lane, applied his brakes and tried to drive into the right ditch, but was struck head-on. Dead are Ramey, and Bailey's wife, Sandra, who died instantly.

Nixon, Shah Of Iran Hold Talks

TEHRAN (AP) — President Nixon arrived in Iran's capital today for an overnight visit and talks with the Shah on regional and world matters.

The President and Mrs. Nixon were greeted at Tehran's Mehrabad Airport by the 52-year-old monarch and Empress Farah after a flight from Kiev, the Nixons' last stop in the Soviet Union following a week of summit talks between the President and Kremlin leaders.

Massive security precautions were taken against attacks by urban guerrillas and other dissident Iranians who were told by Baghdad broadcasts to disrupt the visit.

Among the topics expected to be discussed during the five hours of talks between the two leaders were the future of the Indian Ocean and the Persian Gulf area, which holds 60 per cent of the world's known oil reserves.

The Shah would like to see the United States and Soviet Union agree to let Iran act as the policeman of the area without big power interference. Failing that, the Shah was expected to seek assurance of undiminished U.S. support.

The Soviet government's recent friendship treaties with India and the hostile regime in neighboring Iraq have increased Iran's sense of isolation, and it is suspicious of Moscow's intentions in the Gulf.

Wearing a gray suit, white shirt and blue and gray tie, the President looked tired but smiled as he said goodbye to the Kiev airport to President Alexander Lyashko of the Ukraine and other officials.

The weather was clear and balmy as the President and Mrs. Nixon boarded Air Force One after an overnight stop in Kiev, the capital of the Soviet Ukraine.

"It's such a lovely day, I'd like to stay another week," Nixon told Lyashko's wife and Mrs. Vladimir Scherbatsky, (Continued on Page 2)

Final Rites Are Scheduled For Duke Of Windsor, 77

LONDON (AP) — Buckingham Palace announced today that the Trooping of the Color in honor of the queen's official birthday Saturday, one of London's major tourist attractions during June, will not be canceled because of mourning for the Duke of Windsor.

Instead, the palace said, Queen Elizabeth II decided "that a tribute should be paid in London and that the Household Troops in which he served should have the opportunity of paying their last respects to him on parade."

Just before the queen rides out to the parade ground to take the salute, the pipes and drums of the guards will take a special position. There will be a roll of drums followed by the toll of Big Ben. Then there will be another drum roll and the pipers will pipe a lament. Flags and drums will be swathed in black. Officers will wear mourning armbands.

The palace said it was unlikely the Duchess of Windsor would attend the ceremony but she "has expressed great pleasure" over it. She may watch it on television.

Although the queen was born on April 21—she was 46 this year—her birthday is always celebrated officially in June, when there is a better chance for good weather for the Trooping of the Color.

A Royal Air Force jet will bring the body of the duke Wednesday from Paris, where he died Sunday at the age of 77. The American woman for whom he gave up the throne in 1936 will travel with the body and for the first time since the abdication will stay at Buckingham Palace.

The duke will lie in state Friday and Saturday in St. George's chapel, at Windsor Castle, and the public will be allowed to file past the coffin. The funeral in the chapel Monday will be simple and private in accordance with the duke's instructions, attended by members of the royal family and high-ranking officials.

Burial will be in the small cemetery at Frogmore, in Windsor Park, where Queen Victoria and the duke's younger brother, the Duke of Kent, are buried. The duke chose that place of interment, instead of St. George's chapel, the traditional burial place of British monarchs, because the duchess could not be buried there.

Medical Society, Doctor In Feud

BOSTON (AP) — Dr. John Knowles, next director of the Rockefeller Foundation, says he will not go before the Massachusetts Medical Society to back up charges that some doctors are unethical.

"I'm not going to diddle around with those jerks," Knowles, former director of Massachusetts General Hospital, said Monday.

He had said a substantial number of physicians in the country are "making a killing in the practice of medicine." He also had alleged some doctors perform "incredible amounts" of unnecessary surgery.

JFK Photos Are Shown

BOSTON (AP) — The John F. Kennedy Library is marking what would have been the 55th birthday of the late president with an exhibit of 46 photographs and 28 mementoes from the collection that it has in storage.

The display opens today in the lobby of the Kennedy federal building. Kennedy was born 55 years ago Monday.

David Powers, a Kennedy White House aide who is acting curator of the library, said the exhibit was prepared because "birthdays were something special to him."

The display items have been taken from the 62,000 photographs and more than 10,000 museum objects the library has stored in suburban Waltham until a permanent building is ready.

In suburban Brookline Monday, more than 300 persons visited Kennedy's birthplace.

The National Park Service says more than 100,000 visitors come annually to the modest, nine-room house that was the Kennedy family's home from 1914 to 1920.

Holiday Highway Toll 532; Ohio Count Reaches 32

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic accidents around the nation claimed 532 lives during the Memorial Day weekend.

The National Safety Council had estimated in advance that between 530 and 630 persons might be killed on streets and highways from 6 p.m. local time Friday to midnight Monday.

During the 1971 Memorial Day holiday, also a three-day period, The Associated Press counted 553 deaths in traffic. The highest toll for any three-day observance of the holiday was 597 in 1969.

The Memorial Day weekend, the first holiday break of the season, ended with 22 persons dead on Ohio highways.

The final tally fell just short of the 25 deaths predicted by Ohio safety officials for the 78-hour period.

Six accidents accounted for 14 of the traffic deaths that occurred from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday.

Shortly after the count began, four members of a suburban Cincinnati family died when their car pulling a trailer rammed a bridge on Interstate 75 in Wood County. Four other members of the family were hospitalized.

Three men were killed Sunday in a head-on collision on U.S. 52 north of Cincinnati in Hamilton County. Four separate double fatality mishaps occurred in Montgomery, Vinton, Hocking and Guernsey counties.

Three other accidents involved a pedestrian, a bicyclist and a minibike rider.

The Memorial Day toll exceeded this year's previous weekend high of 30 deaths, which were recorded May 24-26.

The dead:

FRIDAY NIGHT
BOWLING GREEN Wilbur Strum, 43; his wife, Alberta, 49, and children Michael, 15, and Timothy, 14, all of St. Bernard, near Cincinnati, died when their car and trailer smashed into a bridge abutment on Interstate 75 in Wood County. Four other members of the family were hospitalized.

AKRON — Sheila A. Thorne, 27, of Akron, was killed on the Akron expressway in a two-car crash.

SATURDAY
DAYTON — Vera Barnett, 17, and brother-in-law, Richard Barnett, 17, both of Dayton, died in a mishap involving two cars and a truck at a Montgomery County intersection.

LANCASTER — Andrew Kilson Jr., 48, of Rushville, was killed in a two-car smashup on U.S. 22 one mile northeast of Lancaster.

CINCINNATI — James Corcoran, 54, of Cincinnati, died when his car rammed a tree in the Western Hills section of Cincinnati.

BELLEVUE — Scott W. Eisenhower, 10, of Bellevue, died when his minibike was struck by another vehicle near Bellevue.

WOOSTER — Edna Baker, 80, of rural Wooster, was killed in a two-car crash at the intersection of U.S. 22 and Ohio 100. (Continued on Page 7)

ALTHOUGH investigation is continuing, the Highway Patrol of Athens has issued a statement claiming that Ramey's northbound auto went left of center after taking a curve of State Route 180 and struck head-on with a car driven by Mrs. Bailey's husband, John R. Bailey, 29, who was listed in fair condition this morning in Riverside Hospital in Columbus.

Others injured were taken to Berger Hospital here and all but one transferred to one of three Columbus hospitals. The one was Charles A. Woodgeard, who was treated for small lacerations from broken glass and released. Woodgeard is 19 and lives at Route 1, Rockbridge. He was a passenger in Ramey's automobile.

Passengers in the Bailey vehicle were his brother Samuel, 27, of Route 1, Rockbridge and Janice L. Collier, 21, of Laurelville. Miss Collier is in University Hospital, in the surgical intensive care unit, listed in satisfactory condition. Samuel was admitted to Mt. Carmel and is in "critical" condition in the intensive care ward.

There were four other passengers in the other auto, in addition to Woodgeard and Ramey. Mary L. Graham, 15 (Continued on Page 2)

Crash Kills Couple

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — John C. Greene, 23, and his wife, Penny, 24, Quaker City, Ohio, died Monday in a one-car accident on Ohio 265 near this Guernsey County community, the Ohio Highway Patrol said.

The first kites appeared in the Orient some 2,500 years ago, probably inspired by birds, leaves and winged seeds.

MEDICOPTER TEAM — Ohio National Guard medicopter crew and Hocking County Sheriff's Deputies rush Norman P. Ramey, 33, McArthur, to their helicopter (behind tree at right) for emergency transportation to Ohio State University Hospital, Columbus. Ramey later died in the hospital from injuries he suffered in a two-car collision on Route 180, north of Laurelville, at dusk Monday. Ramey was believed at fault in the head-on crash that also claimed the life of a Tarlton housewife. The Medicopter was recalled to Berger Hospital to transport the more serious of seven other persons injured in the crash to three Columbus hospitals for further treatment.

Eight Others

(Continued from Page 1) and Sheila M. Graham, 17, both of Route 1, South Bloomingville, are patients in University Hospital. The physicians list them both in satisfactory condition this morning, although they remain in intensive care.

A 21-year-old McArthur man, Jerry Forest, was admitted to Mt. Carmel Hospital where he was termed "critical" early Tuesday morning. Leona Smyers is reported in "fair" condition following "a fair night" at Riverside. The 18-year-old girl lives at Route 1, Laurelville.

All six persons' conditions were considered "critical" when they were sent by Medicopter and ambulance to Columbus, some with multiple injuries.

THE accident occurred about 6:15 Monday evening at a point two miles north of Laurelville in Hocking County. Two witnesses of the crash were Kelson Rutter and his son Rick who were working in a garden in front of their house at the accident scene. They reported they heard the northbound car accelerate as it came out of the curve and the other car apply its brakes. They looked up and saw the vehicles hit.

Veteran ambulance driver Jack Mader noted today that "it was the worst wreck I have ever seen. It looked like a battlefield; I've never seen anything like it."

First law enforcement officer to arrive at the scene was Pickaway County Sheriff Deputy Lowell Ferguson. He turned the investigation over to Hocking County Sheriff Department, but remained to assist with removing the injured. Hocking authorities turned the accident over to the Athens post of the Ohio Highway Patrol who are today continuing the investigation.

Traffic on Route 180 was backed up two miles on both sides, it was reported, mainly by people who came to view the grim scene. Their large number and a similar crowd at Berger Hospital hampered the rescue work.

At Berger, the crowd was attracted around the Medicopter which came to carry the critically wounded to hospitals in Columbus. City police, sheriff deputies and auxiliaries were required to clear the hospital area and allow the ambulances to leave the hospital and the helicopter to take off. Sheriff Dwight Radcliff organized a two-car relay to escort the ambulances to Franklin County.

Born in Circleville Oct. 8, 1939, Norman (Buddy) Ramey was the son of Harry and Martha Duff Ramey, who survive at Route 1, McArthur. He is also survived by two daughters, Cherrie and Stephanie, both of Columbus; a brother Harry Melvin Ramey, Route 1, McArthur; and sisters, Mrs. Phyllis Mae Tolliver, Mrs. Donna Jean Blackburn, Carolyn

Local Patrol Handles Eleven Holiday Accidents, 1 Fatal

Over the Memorial Day weekend, the Circleville Highway Patrol post investigated 11 accidents and one fatality in which a Columbus bicycle rider died.

The cyclist was killed at 10 p.m. Sunday when he was struck by an auto driven by William D. Garlinger, 25, also of Columbus. Garlinger claimed the bicycle operated by Richard Lee Pile, 19, had no lights as it was travelling on Route 62 in Franklin County. Garlinger's wife Sherry and two daughters, age 14 months and 30 months, received injuries.

Twelve-year-old Bruce M. Owen, of Grove City, escaped serious injury Saturday afternoon when he made a left turn into the path of a passing auto on Route 665 east of Route 71. The auto was driven by Arnold F. Hager, 54, of Columbus. The Patrol report notes Owens claimed slight injuries, but they were not visible.

Of the accidents, four involved injuries to seven drivers and passengers. A total of 178 arrests were made; 23 for driving while intoxicated.

In a check for unsafe vehicles, 229 warnings were issued. Ohio Highway Patrolmen from the local post were also called on to assist 144 motorists in distress during the long holiday weekend.

County Accident Total Light For Long Memorial Weekend

A woman was injured in one of four auto accidents in Pickaway County during the long Memorial Day weekend. Another man was hurt seriously in a single car crash about noon Tuesday.

Phyllis J. Crisp, 41, Lockbourne, is being treated at Grant Hospital, Columbus, for a broken right arm and contusions and abrasions following her one-car crash 5:30 p.m. Sunday at Lane Road and Welch Road in Scioto Twp.

According to the report of Sheriff's Deputy Lowell Ferguson, she was traveling west on Lane Road, left the right side of the road and dropped into a deep ditch. Her car traveled 93 feet in the ditch and turned on its right side.

She was taken to the Columbus Hospital by the Scioto Emergency squad.

Larry Spires, 29, Route 1, was injured about noon Tuesday when his small foreign car left slippery Route 56 on the Earnhart Hill and crashed into a tree.

He has been admitted to Berger Hospital for treatment. Spires was traveling towards Circleville, witnesses say, when his car left the road surface, flew about 80 feet through the air and crashed into a tree on the Huber-Hitler Road. He was thrown from the vehicle.

A more serious accident was averted by an alert, unidentified truck driver while the man was being loaded into an ambulance.

The ambulance was backing from Huber-Hitler Road onto Route 56 with the injured man when the truck crested the hill, headed towards Circleville.

He immediately applied his air brakes, but they would not hold the heavy truck on the wet pavement.

The truck driver swerved to the left to avoid hitting the ambulance, but a stopped car in the left lane forced him off the road.

Narrowly missing the car with seven passengers, the truck driver drove into the left ditch and the truck toppled to its side.

The driver complained of a head injury, but refused treatment.

Bradley J. Kneec, 16, Route 4, suffered abrasions to the right side of his face, left elbow both hips and knees, as he was thrown from a pick-up truck 2:30 p.m. Monday on the Circleville-Tarlton Rd.

like weather are believed responsible for keeping traffic accidents to a minimum over the long Memorial Day weekend, in Pickaway County at least.

A fatal crash in Hocking County and a rain and electrical storm about 4 p.m. Monday were the only serious incidents.

The storm dumped .84 inch of rain in Circleville in less than 20 minutes. Lightning and heavy winds broke power and telephone lines and backed up traffic on Route 23 at the Route 22 overpass.

MUNICIPAL Court clerk Nikki Houghton reports that her department filed 67 cases of traffic violations Saturday through Tuesday for city police, Sheriff's Deputies and High Patrol.

They collected $3,086.50 in bond money. A dozen motorists were cited for driving while intoxicated.

CIRCLEVILLE AREA — Home owners in this general area have been chosen to view a remarkable new product developed by the Sherwin-Williams and Reynolds Corporations. It is a new Miracle Finish, which after 20 years of research and testing, can eliminate your exterior paint and maintenance problems for a life time. This new material can not only be applied on a wood sided home but also stucco, brick and asbestos. The technical name of the finish is Poly-Vinyl Chloride (P.V.C.-3) and will last a lifetime. If you are selected, a personal demonstration will be made, along with free samples of this remarkable product. You may also have the opportunity of having this material applied to your home at a special low price. Call your local agent MR. NYGREN, an appointment will be made to see your home at that time. Circleville 474-3811.

Officers say Kneec was attempting to hold furniture in place in the rear of the truck driven by Paul Allen, 29, Route 4, when a gust of wind threw him and the mattress he was sitting on out of the truck.

Deputies investigated non-injury crashes at 10:50 a.m. Monday when two cars, carrying a total of seven people collided on the Circleville-London Northern Rd; at 10:55 p.m. Friday when a single car, carrying eight people, drove off the Commercial Point Road at Van Meter Road; and at 12:10 a.m. Sunday when a single car drove off Route 22, northeast of Griest Road.

Police Spend Busy Weekend

Vandalisms, high wind damage and a theft were on the agenda of city police over the Memorial Day weekend.

James White, 209 N. Pickaway St., reported the windshield broken on his truck while it was parked at Mack's Garage off Ohio St.

Paint was thrown on a car belonging to Terry Darst while it was parked at the rear of 479 Half Ave.

A mailbox at the residence of David Lemley, Dunkel Road, was damaged by rocks thrown against it.

Pat Poorman, 476 Stella Ave., notified police his bicycle was stolen from the parking area at Ted Lewis Park swimming pool.

A second story window in the rear of the city building was blown out by the high winds 4 p.m. Monday.

The broken glass fell on Ptl. Jack Mills' car, causing damage to the windshield and hood.

Surprise Departure

No member of the Nixon administration has had as dramatic an impact on the day-to-day affairs of the nation as John Connally had during his tenure as Secretary of the Treasury. The President has identified the Texas Democrat as the architect of the administration's new economics — a game plan which swept aside almost overnight traditional fiscal and monetary policies.

More than that, Connally's position within the administration grew brighter and more forceful with each passing month. By the day of his surprise resignation from his department post he had become one of the President's top and most intimate advisers on international as well as domestic policies.

Designing as he did at the apparent peak of his popularity with the White House naturally encourages speculation of Connally's future role in politics. Perhaps the departure was timed with that speculation in mind.

Whatever the reason for the resignation, which may surface later in the year, few observers of the current Washington scene would bet they have seen the last of a man whose ambition, strong personality and ability to succeed in pursuing his goals brought him into the public limelight.

Almost forgotten in the wake of the surprising turn of events involving John Connally is a judgment on the effectiveness of the economic policies he designed.

Pipeline Approval

As expected, the decision by Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton to grant a permit for the construction of a 780-mile pipeline across Alaska to tap the North Slope oil reserves has revived the fight of various groups against the project.

The opposition by environmentalists and others has taken two forms: some of them favor a trans-Canada pipeline and others want no pipeline at all.

The latter argument would doom any substantial extraction of oil from the North Slope because of the short season in which ocean freighters could work the region. The trans-Canada pipeline is a different story.

In time, the trans-Canada pipeline could prove the more efficient method of marketing what now appear to be ample stores of both oil and natural gas. It would remove the need for tankers to move the output to the American market and it would direct the flow to the heart of the United States for re distribution.

It would also, however, take considerably longer to put into operation because of the distance involved and it would require cooperation by Canada. The Alaskan pipeline would carry the oil to the ice-free port of Valdez and could bring it to the American market perhaps years before the trans-Canada line could be constructed.

The time factor involved in the alternate pipeline was the reason mentioned by Morton in his approval of the Alaskan route. The government's decision moves the project one step closer to reality, but it is not the final one.

A court injunction against construction must first be resolved, and the environmentalists have threatened to carry their objections as far as the Supreme Court.

Everyone's War

From the National Tuberculosis Association comes a reminder that the "great white plague," once the greatest killer among communicable diseases, is far from dead.

Widespread closing of tuberculosis sanatoriums and reduction of the TB death rate through the years has lulled the public into the false belief that tuberculosis is no longer a danger.

But it is foolish to be complacent about a disease that kills several million people a year, including 10,000 Americans.

Wernher Von Braun Quits To Take Private Position

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A cheer rose from the crude blockhouse as America launched its first ballistic missile Aug. 20, 1953. But seconds later gloom set in when the Redstone rocket plunged into the Atlantic Ocean.

"Find out what went wrong," ordered Dr. Wernher Von Braun, whose crew of rocket specialists from Germany developed the missile at the Army's Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Ala.

Ohio Bell Drops Rate Hike Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Bell Telephone Co. has decided to drop its request for a temporary rate hike while its permanent increase is being considered by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

An Ohio Bell spokesman said the temporary request would not be worthwhile at this time. The proposed temporary hike was filed with the commission last January, nearly six months after the permanent rate increase request was filed.

The commission plans to hold hearings this autumn on Ohio Bell's requested permanent hike that would amount to more than $100 million a year. 6 no. 10s spts brfs

Mayor Threatened Over Dirt In City

REGGIO CALABRIA, Italy (AP) — Police are investigating mailed and telephone threats to kill Mayor Fortunato Licandro unless he keeps the city cleaner and greener.
Letters blaming the mayor for not preventing pollution were signed by anonymous "citizens interested in the beauty of Reggio."
The phone calls, police said, accused the mayor of not keeping up the public gardens or protecting the city's greenery.

The new Intelsat 4 communications satellite can carry 5,000 to 6,000 simultaneous two-way telephone conversations under normal conditions.

For the last two years, the man who once built rockets for Adolf Hitler has been NASA deputy associate administrator for planning. For nine years he was director of the Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, where he and his group of Germans formed the nucleus of the nation's major rocket-building team.

Von Braun, 60, said he is making the change because he wants to devote his time to help implement "some space projects I feel are of particular importance. I think I can do this best in industry where the tools of progress are being made."

Dear Editor:

On Friday night, May 19, our large, beautiful, white, pure bred Samoyed got out of our yard before we could stop her. We searched Friday night, all day Saturday and all day Sunday and could find no trace of her. Nobody that we talked to had seen her. It seemed as though the earth had opened up and swallowed her.

On Monday she was found in a ditch outside of Commercial Point on Route 762. She apparently had been killed elsewhere and dumped in this area. This dog was playful affectionate and trusting.

If this was an unavoidable accident, I would certainly understand and I would appreciate it very much if the person would call me.

I would hate to think that anyone who could do this deliberately lives in our community.

Today is Tuesday, May 30, the 151st day of 1972. There are 215 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1431, Joan of Arc was burned at the stake in Rouen, France.

On this date: In 1498, Christopher Columbus sailed from Spain on his third voyage to the New World. In 1539, the Spanish explorer, Hernando de Soto, landed in Florida.

In 1883 report that the new Brooklyn Bridge in New York was about to collapse created panic. Six persons on the bridge were trampled to death.

In 1942, during World War II, more than 1,100 British bombers pounded Cologne, Germany. In 1961, the dictator of the Dominican Republic, Rafael Trujillo, was assassinated.

In 1963, the official death toll in a windstorm which struck East Pakistan was put at 10,000.

Ten years ago: Premier and Mrs. Nikita Khrushchev were in the Moscow audience at the opening of a Benny Goodman jazz concert tour in the Soviet Union.

Five years ago: The central government in Nigeria mobilized the army after the country's eastern region was declared an independent state of Biafra.

McGovern

By JEFFERY HART

In a recent column I pointed out that the tax reform measures being proposed by Sen. George McGovern, whatever they might do to the rich — who, as experience shows, have more than one way of protecting their dough — would in fact impose crushing burdens on the $12-20,000 middle

American. And these proposals are the heart of the McGovern program.

There are other McGovern proposals, not at the heart of his program, but, still, revealing enough. Take this one. McGovern says he can raise an additional $5 billion per year through confiscatory taxation of inheritances above $500,000. Initially, McGovern proposed a 100 per cent tax, but more recently altered this to 77 per cent, perhaps as a concession to moderation.

There are two sorts of response here, the moral and the practical. Some temperaments, such as the British socialist historian R. H. Tawney, simply detest the idea of inheritance. The idea that infant A may be born rich, while infant B is not, outrages their sense of fairness. One suspects that McGovern shares this emotion.

There is another moral response to inheritance. Edmund Burke delighted in the variety of society and the actuality of wealth. He saw it as, in many ways, socially beneficial. And he thought that the prospect of passing on to one's heirs the rewards of one's work was one of the consolations of the human lot.

Actually, no argument or fact can reconcile these opposing preferences. One tends to a general elvelling, the other to a more various and unequal condition.

But to descend to the practical level, there can be no doubt about the effect of McGovern's proposal.

At the very best, McGovern might collect his $5 billion once — the first year his tax went into effect. After that, the taxpayers affected would make sure they died broke.

Why would a man not spend his pile, spend it on anything even throw it out a window or into the ocean, rather than give it to taxing George?

Far short of that, other possibilities would emerge. A lot of money, certainly, would leave the country, and foreign countries would find it in their interest to encourage this outflow. Our balance of payments? Well, why give it to George, when you can go into business in say, Geneva?

Besides encouraging profligate spending, the McGovern scheme would cause people to work less and retire earlier, and it would discourage investment.

George McGovern, clearly enough, did not think this proposal through before espousing it. It is a minor point. But that he could thus lightly propose it tells us a good deal about him.

And that he could be endorsed by economists like John Kenneth Galbraith and Paul Samuelson tells us, also, much about these economists. Or, it may be, they have inhaled some of the pot fumes wafting around in Cambridge, Mass.

WEDNESDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to take care of any vocational activity that is yours and do so in a most efficient manner. Forget fun and frivolity for now. Keep promises and agreements you have made and handle them conscientiously. Don't disappoint higher-ups.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Handling credit affairs conscientiously is wise now. Don't jeopardize your good reputation. Advice from experts in career work puts you ahead of others. Show that you are efficient.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have fine ideas but you need the right facts and figures in order to put them across well. Take care of important correspondence. Put your life on a more ideal basis.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Study how much you owe others and keep your good credit intact by paying bills promptly. Try to meet expectations of mate and you have more harmony in the future. Relax tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Cooperating with an associate brings increased mutual benefits. Take care of an outside affair carefully and gain good results. Try to please others more and all is fine.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have to handle every item of an important work plan carefully if you are to have success with it. Get the okay of bigwigs before putting it in operation. Take health treatments.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Plan social entertaining carefully in the morning and all goes well later. Words alone are not enough to please mate. Your actions will speak louder. Show that you have wisdom.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Go through with the ideas you have that are for the betterment of home and family. Not a good evening for entertaining at home since it requires too big a slice out of your budget.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have to be very precise in handling business affairs so that you don't have any losses. Enjoy a hobby with a good pal in the evening. Show that you have a good sense of humor.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Handle monetary affairs intelligently. Make repairs to property that will improve its value. Be sure to pay your bills. If you don't keep a budget, get one started now.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you handle personal duties first, you can do others later and complete all. Accept an invitation to a social affair in the evening. Show that you appreciate good friends.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Engage in business matters now so that you can enjoy the romantic and pleasurable side of life later. Handle those daily tasks with enthusiasm. A friend needs your assistance.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have an opportunity to be with an older and wiser person and gain many benefits. Be sure not to force anything. Attend a group affair tonight. Show that you have poise.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those individuals who likes to put everything on a practical level. Don't expect your progeny to go in for anything of a highly artistic or psychological nature, but direct education along such lines as banking, real estate and property management. An independent nature in this chart which could prove most beneficial.

Surprise Departure

No member of the Nixon administration has had as dramatic an impact on the day-to-day affairs of the nation as John Connally had during his tenure as Secretary of the Treasury. The President has identified the Texas Democrat as the architect of the administration's new economics — a game plan which swept aside almost overnight traditional fiscal and monetary policies.

More than that, Connally's position within the administration grew brighter and more forceful with each passing month. By the day of his surprise resignation from his department post he had become one of the President's top and most intimate advisers on international as well as domestic policies.

Designing as he did at the apparent peak of his popularity with the White House naturally encourages speculation of Connally's future role in politics. Perhaps the departure was timed with that speculation in mind.

Whatever the reason for the resignation, which may surface later in the year, few observers of the current Washington scene would bet they have seen the last of a man whose ambition, strong personality and ability to succeed in pursuing his goals brought him into the public limelight.

Almost forgotten in the wake of the surprising turn of events involving John Connally is a judgment on the effectiveness of the economic policies he designed.

Pipeline Approval

As expected, the decision by Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton to grant a permit for the construction of a 780-mile pipeline across Alaska to tap the North Slope oil reserves has revived the fight of various groups against the project.

The opposition by environmentalists and others has taken two forms: some of them favor a trans-Canada pipeline and others want no pipeline at all.

The latter argument would doom any substantial extraction of oil from the North Slope because of the short season in which ocean freighters could work the region. The trans-Canada pipeline is a different story.

In time, the trans-Canada pipeline could prove the more efficient method of marketing what now appear to be ample stores of both oil and natural gas. It would remove the need for tankers to move the output to the American market and it would direct the flow to the heart of the United States for distribution.

It would also, however, take considerably longer to put into operation because of the distance involved and it would require cooperation by Canada. The Alaskan pipeline would carry the oil to the ice-free port of Valdez and could bring it to the American market perhaps years before the trans-Canada line could be constructed.

The time factor involved in the alternate pipeline was the reason mentioned by Morton in his approval of the Alaskan route. The government's decision moves the project one step closer to reality, but it is not the final one.

A court injunction against construction must first be resolved, and the environmentalists have threatened to carry their objections as far as the Supreme Court.

Everyone's War

From the National Tuberculosis Association comes a reminder that the "great white plague," once the greatest killer among communicable diseases, is far from dead.

Widespread closing of tuberculosis sanatoriums and reduction of the TB death rate through the years has lulled the public into the false belief that tuberculosis is no longer a danger.

But it is foolish to be complacent about a disease that kills several million people a year, including 10,000 Americans.

Wernher Von Braun Quits To Take Private Position

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A cheer rose from the crude blockhouse as America launched its first ballistic missile Aug. 20, 1953. But seconds later gloom set in when the Redstone rocket plunged into the Atlantic Ocean.

"Find out what went wrong," ordered Dr. Wernher Von Braun, whose crew of rocket specialists from Germany developed the missile at the Army's Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Ala.

A search of data traced the problem to the guidance system. A mechanic suggested he might have made too tight a twist on a certain screw. Testing showed that to be the case.

Von Braun summoned the mechanic to his office. Instead of disciplining him, he gave him a bottle of champagne.

"I am always happy to solve a problem so quickly," Von Braun said, "and I wanted to impress upon my men that absolute honesty is something you must have in a team effort. You look ahead, not back."

The Redstone's difficulties were overcome and it became this nation's first operational ballistic missile. Later, Von Braun's group used the basic America's first satellite and its first man in space and to develop the longer-range Jupiter rocket, the Saturn 1 booster and the Saturn 5 which has hurled 10 men to landings on the moon.

Now, after 27 years of service to the U.S. government, Von Braun is retiring to take a post with private industry. He announced Friday in Washington that he is leaving the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to become corporate vice president for engineering and development at Fairchild Industries, Germantown, Md.

The firm is building scientific satellites for launch in 1973 and 1974. A Fairchild spokesman said Von Braun will concentrate on space projects that will benefit people on earth. He gave no specifics.

Letters blaming the mayor for not preventing pollution were signed by anonymous "citizens interested in the beauty of Reggio."

The phone calls, police said, accused the mayor of not keeping up the public gardens or protecting the city's greenery.

The new Intelsat 4 communications satellite can carry 5,000 to 6,000 simultaneous two-way telephone conversations under normal conditions.

For the last two years, the man who once built rockets for Adolf Hitler has been NASA deputy associate administrator for planning. For nine years he was director of the Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, where he and his group of Germans formed the nucleus of the nation's major rocket-building team.

Von Braun, 60, said he is making the change because he wants to devote his time to help implement "some space projects I feel are of particular importance. I think I can do this best in industry where the tools of progress are being made."

Dear Editor:

On Friday night, May 19, our large, beautiful, white, pure bred Samoyed got out of our yard before we could stop her. We searched Friday night, all day Saturday and all day Sunday and could find no trace of her. Nobody that we talked to had seen her. It seemed as though the earth had opened up and swallowed her.

On Monday she was found in a ditch outside of Commercial Point on Route 762. She apparently had been killed elsewhere and dumped in this area. This dog was playful affectionate and trusting.

If this was an unavoidable accident, I would certainly understand and I would appreciate it very much if the person would call me.

I would hate to think that anyone who could do this deliberately lives in our community.

Ohio Bell Drops Rate Hike Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Bell Telephone Co. has decided to drop its request for a temporary rate hike while its permanent increase is being considered by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

An Ohio Bell spokesman said the temporary request would not be worthwhile at this time. The proposed temporary hike was filed with the commission last January, nearly six months after the permanent rate increase request was filed.

The commission plans to hold hearings this autumn on Ohio Bell's requested permanent hike that would amount to more than $160 million a year. 6 no. 10s spts brfs

McGovern

By JEFFERY HART

In a recent column I pointed out that the tax reform measures being proposed by Sen. George McGovern, whatever they might do to the rich — who, as experience shows, have more than one way of protecting their dough — would in fact impose crushing burdens on the $12-20,000 middle

American. And these proposals are the heart of the McGovern program.

There are other McGovern proposals, not at the heart of his program, but, still, revealing enough. Take this one. McGovern says he can raise an additional $5 billion per year through confiscatory taxation of inheritances above $500,000. Initially, McGovern proposed a 100 per cent tax, but more recently altered this to 77 per cent, perhaps as a concession to moderation.

There are two sorts of response here, the moral and the practical. Some temperaments, such as the British socialist historian R. H. Tawney, simply detest the idea of inheritance. The idea that infant A may be born rich, while infant B is not, outrages their sense of fairness. One suspects that McGovern shares this emotion.

There is another moral response to inheritance. Edmund Burke delighted in the variety of society and the actuality of wealth. He saw it as, in many ways, socially beneficial. And he thought that the prospect of passing on to one's heirs the rewards of one's work was one of the consolations of the human lot.

Actually, no argument or fact can reconcile these opposing preferences. One tends to a general eveling, the other to a more various and unequal condition.

But to descend to the practical level, there can be no doubt about the effect of McGovern's proposal.

At the very best, McGovern might collect his $5 billion once — the first year his tax went into effect. After that, the taxpayers affected would make sure they died broke.

Why would a man not spend his pile, spend it on anything, even throw it out a window or into the ocean, rather than give it to taxing George?

Far short of that, other possibilities would emerge. A lot of money, certainly, would leave the country, and foreign countries would find it in their interest to encourage this outflow. Our balance of payments? Well, why give it to George, when you can go into business in say, Geneva?

Besides encouraging profligate spending, the McGovern scheme would cause people to work less and retire earlier, and it would discourage investment.

George McGovern, clearly enough, did not think this proposal through before espousing it. It is a minor point. But that he could thus lightly propose it tells us a good deal about him.

Brezhnev Gets Deluxe Cadillac

DETROIT (AP) — Cadillac says practically every optional item it offers was included on the car that President Nixon presented to Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev.

Extras on the black, front-wheel-drive Eldorado included an AM-FM stereo radio, tape deck, tinted glass and a special air horn.

"About the only item added specifically for overseas was a kilo speedometer, rather than the regular-type speedometer found in American cars," a Cadillac spokesman said.

He said the car came off the assembly line May 16 and had no special safety equipment such as bullet-proof glass or armor plate.

Cadillac, a division of General Motors, confirmed Monday that it donated the $9,600 car for presentation to Brezhnev.

The Russian leader, a car buff, has in his personal collection such Western autos as a Rolls Royce limousine, a Citroen-Maserati and a Renault 16.

The GM delivery of the Cadillac to Brezhnev was a well kept secret. First word of it came Monday as Nixon was leaving Moscow.

Engineers Say Dam Was Doomed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Corps of Engineers says the West Virginia dam that collapsed last February, killing at least 118 persons, was doomed from the start. A Senate subcommittee opens hearings today on the disaster.

The Engineers released a report Monday saying the dam "should never have been built." The report spread the blame for the disaster among the U.S. Bureau of Mines, the State of West Virginia, and the Buffalo Coal Co. which built the structure. All three, the report said, appear to have legal responsibilities over the safe construction and inspection of a dam.

Said the Corps report: "The consequent 'let-George-do-it' attitude resulted in tragedy."

The Senate subcommittee scheduled two days of testimony by Bureau, state and company officials, along with law-enforcement and National Guard spokesmen, and survivors of the tragedy.

On the eve of the hearings, the subcommittee released the Corps report on the collapse of the Buffalo Mining Co. Dam No. 3, on the Middle Fork of Buffalo Creek.

The Corps is preparing a second report surveying similar waste-pile dams in West Virginia.

KONTUM, Vietnam (AP) — Two American soldiers and two Vietnamese stand at the yawning rear ramp of the helicopter, their rifles at the ready. They make threatening gestures at the crowd outside, an anxious mob of women with children slung under their arms, soldiers waving official papers, old men with the lines of worry and age in their faces.

The guards shout but cannot be heard over the roar of the big jet engines.

Despite the searing exhaust and gale-force winds of the rotor down-draft, the mob presses closer. The ramp is raised to prevent them from leaping aboard.

The guards' job is not pleasant but necessary. Only wounded soldiers and Americans are allowed aboard.

The chopper taxis a few yards to get away from the crowd. Before the people can catch up, an army ambulance swings behind it and backs up to the ramp, which descends again.

The wounded come aboard, first two men on stretchers that are shoved to the front of the cabin. One grimaces in pain, the other appears to be unconscious. Then the others—a

Copter Crash Fatal To 11 In Louisiana

DULAC La. (AP) — Officials say a helicopter slammed to earth upside down with such force that it was almost buried in the soft mud of a Louisiana swamp. The pilot and 10 passengers died.

The craft, owned by Petroleum Helicopters Corp. of Lafayette, was carrying workmen to their jobs on an offshore oil rig when it crashed Monday about 60 miles southwest of New Orleans.

The pilot was identified as Fred Robarge, 37, of Lafayette. The other victims were employees of the Penrod Drilling Co. of Lafayette. The firm declined to release their identities until all relatives had been notified.

The scene of the crash was accessible only by other helicopters, swamp buggies or air boats—flat-bottomed boats that are propelled along the surface of the water and swamp grass by airplane propellers.

The crash was about four miles south of Dulac, a tiny community populated by fishermen and offshore oil rig workers. Officials said the cause of the crash was unknown.

National Labor Law Is Sought

HOUSTON (AP) — The president of the nation's biggest union of public workers urged leaders of his 550,000-member organization today to switch their lobbying emphasis from the states to Congress in an effort to win a national labor law covering state, county and city employees.

"The big crap game is now in the nation's capital," said Jerry Wurf, head of the AFL-CIO American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Wurf told some 1,500 delegates to the union's convention that membership in public employ unions is growing by leaps and bounds despite state laws that frequently discourage unions and sometimes send their leaders to jail for striking.

Campus Notes

SHARON ARCHER
Elected Student Senate President

Sharon Archer, daughter of Gertrude Archer, 1015 Sunshine St., has been elected President of the Student Senate for 1972-73 at the National College of Education, Evanston, Ill.

Miss Archer, a junior, is majoring in Middle School Science. She is an active member of Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society and the Ambassadors.

The oldest private college for elementary school teachers, National College of Education offers a program of liberal arts in teacher education, awarding the bachelor of arts degree in the Undergraduate School and the master of education in the Graduate School. The curriculum includes a strong program of work with children throughout the four-year undergraduate course, including student teaching in the junior and senior years. A complete Demonstration School, nursery and kindergarten through eighth grade, is on campus.

Miss Archer is a 1969 graduate of Circleville High School.

Eric Downing recently graduated from Muskingum College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and education. He finished all requirements for graduation in December but received his degree during formal commencement ceremonies May 28 at the college.

Eric, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Downing, 163 W. Mound St., has accepted a position as athletic director at Camp Conestoga in Minerva, Ohio for the summer.

EDWARD N. WRIGHT

Edward Neil Wright, Circleville, received his bachelor's degree May 20 at the University of Southern Mississippi, finishing with highest honors. To do so, Wright maintained a minimum 3.8 per cent grade point average out of a possible 4.0. Wright resides at 465 Stella Ave.

Donna E. Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Cole, 670 Ridgewood Drive, was graduated with honors from Dickinson College.

She was tapped to membership in Phi Beta Kappa the national scholastic honorary society, earned her bachelor of arts degree in political science summa cum laude.

Miss Stephens completed all requirements for graduation February 7. Traditional commencement ceremonies were held at the college May 21.

A May 14 graduate in Indiana University was Mark Downing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom A. Downing, W. Mound. Mark received a bachelor degree in the field of sociology. He was also named to the deans' list for his scholastic achievement during his last term.

GAIL SPRENGER

Miss Gail Sprenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Sprenger, 325 Northridge Road, has completed work for an Associate in Arts degree from Stephens College in Missouri. She was among some 565 students in the 137th graduating class to receive AA degrees May 14.

Vernon Bolender, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon G. Bolender Sr., of Lockbourne, has been elected to Tau Beta Pi, a national engineering honor society.

Tau Beta Pi represents the highest honor to be obtained by an engineering student. Membership is awarded on the basis of high scholarship and outstanding character.

Vernon is a student in chemical engineering, completing his junior year at Ohio State University. He was graduated from Teays Valley High School in 1969.

Steven S. Carroll, 939 Circle Drive, received a bachelor of science degree during Tulane University's annual spring commencement on May 22.

The degree was conferred by Dr. Herbert E. Longenecker, president of the University located in New Orleans, La.

David M. Haradon, 583 Wilton Lane, was named an outstanding member of the Variety Band at Purdue University during the school's annual band awards banquet in May.

The dean's list for the winter quarter at the University of Cincinnati included the name of Robert Hines, 102 Park St., Ashville.

Jack N. Carle, a senior at Bowling Green State University majoring in broadcast journalism, was among the April initiates of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Carle, 816 S. Court St.

Patricia Ellen Brackett, 609 Garden Parkway, received an Associate in Science degree Saturday during Cazenovia College's 147th commencement ceremony.

Cazenovia is a two-year private women's college located in upstate New York.

Stephen McGinnis, Atwater Ave., received a Bachelor degree with honors in business from Texas Lutheran College during spring commencement exercises.

Brezhnev Gets Deluxe Cadillac

DETROIT (AP) — Cadillac says practically every optional item it offers was included on the car that President Nixon presented to Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev.

Extras on the black, front-wheel-drive Eldorado included an AM-FM stereo radio, tape deck, tinted glass and a special air horn.

"About the only item added specifically for overseas was a kilo speedometer, rather than the regular-type speedometer found in American cars," a Cadillac spokesman said.

He said the car came off the assembly line May 16 and had no special safety equipment such as bullet-proof glass or armor plate.

Cadillac, a division of General Motors, confirmed Monday that it donated the $9,600 car for presentation to Brezhnev.

The Russian leader, a car buff, has in his personal collection such Western autos as a Rolls Royce limousine, a Citroen-Maserati and a Renault 16.

The GM delivery of the Cadillac to Brezhnev was a well kept secret. First word of it came Monday as Nixon was leaving Moscow.

Engineers Say Dam Was Doomed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Corps of Engineers says the West Virginia dam that collapsed last February, killing at least 118 persons, was doomed from the start. A Senate subcommittee opens hearings today on the disaster.

The Engineers released a report Monday saying the dam "should never have been built."

The report spread the blame for the disaster among the U.S. Bureau of Mines, the State of West Virginia, and the Buffalo Coal Co. which built the structure. All three, the report said, appear to have legal responsibilities over the safe construction and inspection of a dam.

Said the Corps report: "The consequent 'let-George-do-it' attitude resulted in tragedy."

The Senate subcommittee scheduled two days of testimony by Bureau, state and company officials, along with law-enforcement and National Guard spokesmen, and survivors of the tragedy.

On the eve of the hearings, the subcommittee released the Corps report on the collapse of the Buffalo Mining Co. Dam No. 3, on the Middle Fork of Buffalo Creek.

The Corps is preparing a second report surveying similar waste-pile dams in West Virginia.

The University of Northern Colorado has the largest academic library in the state.

Civilians Are Turned Away From Kontum Helicopters

KONTUM, Vietnam (AP) — Two American soldiers and two Vietnamese stand at the yawning rear ramp of the helicopter, their rifles at the ready. They make threatening gestures at the crowd outside, an anxious mob of women with children slung under their arms, soldiers waving official papers, old men with the lines of worry and age in their faces.

The guards shout but cannot be heard over the roar of the big jet engines.

Despite the searing exhaust and gale-force winds of the rotor downdraft, the mob presses closer. The ramp is raised to prevent them from leaping aboard.

The guards' job is not pleasant but necessary. Only wounded soldiers and Americans are allowed aboard.

The chopper taxis a few yards to get away from the crowd. Before the people can catch up, an army ambulance swings behind it and backs up to the ramp, which descends again.

The wounded come aboard, first two men on stretchers that are shoved to the front of the cabin. One grimaces in pain, the other appears to be unconscious. Then the others—a young man in the arms of a boy, a plasma bottle dangling near his weary brown face; four soldiers with bandages on their heads, throats and chests; a girl with red-stained gauze holding her hand and arm together.

Ramp up. Two American soldiers swing up and climb aboard. They lived in Kontum once but now go there only in the daylight to guide in the helicopters. They grab a ride out each night on the last bird to Pleiku.

The engines accelerate. A cloud of dust and debris envelops the machine, driving the crowd back as the big Chinok lumbers into the air and turns south for Pleiku.

Each day is the same now. Several hundred townspeople wait in the half finished soccer stadium downtown, hoping one of the diminishing number of helicopters will somehow open to them.

"No," the American sergeant explains to all who come begging. "Only Americans and wounded Vietnamese. Those are my orders."

He speaks to them in English. They don't know the language, but they get the message.

Copter Crash Fatal To 11 In Louisiana

DULAC La. (AP) — Officials say a helicopter slammed to earth upside down with such force that it was almost buried in the soft mud of a Louisiana swamp. The pilot and 10 passengers died.

The craft, owned by Petroleum Helicopters Corp. of Lafayette, was carrying workmen to their jobs on an offshore oil rig when it crashed Monday about 60 miles southwest of New Orleans.

The pilot was identified as Fred Robarge, 37, of Lafayette. The other victims were employees of the Penrod Drilling Co. of Lafayette. The firm declined to release their identities until all relatives had been notified.

The scene of the crash was accessible only by other helicopters, swamp buggies or air boats—flat-bottomed boats that are propelled along the surface of the water and swamp grass by airplane propellers.

The crash was about four miles south of Dulac, a tiny community populated by fishermen and offshore oil rig workers. Officials said the cause of the crash was unknown.

National Labor Law Is Sought

HOUSTON (AP) — The president of the nation's biggest union of public workers urged leaders of his 550,000-member organization today to switch their lobbying emphasis from the states to Congress in an effort to win a national labor law covering state, county and city employees.

"The big crap game is now in the nation's capital," said Jerry Wurf, head of the AFL-CIO American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Wurf told some 1,500 delegates to the union's convention that membership in public employee unions is growing by leaps and bounds despite state laws that frequently discourage unions and sometimes send their leaders to jail for striking.

Council Of County Garden Clubs Conducts 27th Meeting And Shop

Council of Pickaway County Garden Clubs held its 27th meeting since its organization 14 years ago on Thursday at the Service Center of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church. Clubs of the council include Ashville, Deercreek, Derby, Commercial Point, Monrovia, Logan Elm, Soliqua and Circleville, the host club.

Over 50 members and guests attended the all-day meeting and annual flower show. Registration began at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Bernard Savy, retiring president, presided during the morning session. Mrs. Clyde Herron began the day's activities by reading the article "The Hills Are Eternal" by Margaret E. Sangster. She led devotions and all joined in "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Charles Huston, chairman of the nominating committee presented the 1972 slate of officers as Mrs. Harry T. Smith, president; Mrs. Donald H. Watt, 1st vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Charles Huston, 2nd vice president and Flower Show chairman; Mrs. Judson Beougher, 3rd vice president entitled "Annals In Our Garden." He discussed the method used to prepare his garden for planting and the design he wishes. The garden varies in his choice of annuals which he grows from seeds each season. This year he will be using in his garden petunias, cobeas, scandens, pentapetes, phoxenica hybiscus and dianthus (China doll). Among the usual will be heliotrope, tuberous begonias, gerbera, torenia, alyssum, celosias, asters, impatiens, salvia and periwinkle.

The Children's Shop

All of these will be in different colors and heights to complete his colonial design. The Renick home is over 150 years old so Mr. Renick stressed the value of using vines such as morning glories, hyacinth bean, scarlet runner and moon flower for interesting background plantings.

For variation in color and texture he uses many varieties of coleus, dusty miller, artemisia, stacyas, amaranthus, trefine in red and green and Joseph's coat.

The garden is open to groups and individual callers but a bit of advance notice is requested. A question and answer period conducted by Mr. Renick closed the morning session. Lunch was served by the Ladies of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church. Derby Club provided the favors of potted verbenias and dwarf marigolds. The centerpieces made by each garden club were used as door prizes.

Mrs. Donald H. Watt, Flower Show chairman, opened the show at 1:30 p.m. for viewing. She introduced Mrs. Robert Scherer, an OAGC accredited judge, who complimented the council and staging committee on the quality of the varied plant material and styling in the arrangements classes and specimens.

The theme for the show was "Green Survival — Our Legacy Of Beauty."

Winners in the artistic arrangement classes were: Mrs. Charles Huston, Best of Show; Mrs. Francis Furniss, Mrs. D. H. Watt, Mrs. Judson Beougher, Mrs. Charles Neff, Miss Elisabeth Tolbert, Mrs. C. W. Hedges, Mrs. Joseph Sheets, Mrs. Mabel Stoer, Mrs. Russell Beckett, Mrs. W. E. Gibson, Mrs. Richard McPherson, Mrs. Charles Neff.

Mrs. Donna Beougher and Mrs. Grace Dumm.

The fun highlight was an auction conducted by Mrs. Judson Beougher of the numerous varieties of excess plant material from each club's gardens.

The afternoon program was opened for the first time to the public due to the unusual program presented by Mrs. Emmett Barnhart titled "Creative Backgrounds."

Her style, design and talent produced around 20 of the unusual arrangements. She used every type of material to display her imagination of combining art pieces to create her work. Each arrangement had at least one moving part.

Mrs. Barnhart is most interested in the Japanese influence as she is a talented teacher of Sogusta of Ikebana School. To complete a background she said it requires 8 to 10 hours of concentrated work. She complimented her background with a flower arrangement carrying out the show theme.

The annual Fall Meeting will have Monrovia Club members as hostesses. The newly elected president, Mrs. Harry T. Smith a Monrovia Garden Club member, asked for loyal, support from each member.

Proxmire's Daughter Works For Senator's Transpo Foe

By VERN HAUGLAND
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire has called Transpo 72 a gross misuse of tax dollars, but his 23-year-old daughter is working there and considers it a great success.

"Transpo seems to be going over very well," said Miss Cici Proxmire from behind an information booth at the Canadian Department of Transport exhibit.

"It's technically oriented, aimed more at the trade people, so some persons who come out expecting a fair are a little disappointed," she said.

"They don't really care whether the vehicle has a turbine engine or something else. But there are also many things that have a great appeal to the kids.

"It seems to me to be quite worthwhile."

Proxmire, who has asked for a General Accounting Office investigation of the 10-day exposition at Dulles International Airport, contends the Transportation Department has wasted much of the $5 million appropriated by Congress.

The Wisconsin senator in particular attacked what he called an unduly generous expense account rolled up by Transpo manager William J. Bird of Los Angeles, on loan from his post as vice president of Kaiser Industries Inc.

Miss Proxmire, asked what interesting experiences she has

Report Wallace Still Improving

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace is improving slowly, his doctors say, and has his choice of the hospital menu.

The Alabama chief executive's abdominal wound, doctors attending Wallace said in a daily medical briefing Monday, shows less drainage of abscess daily.

They said the governor's condition continued to improve slowly and gradually.

Charles Snider, Wallace's national campaign officer, said he and the governor's son, George Jr., 20, would go to appeal for votes in the California and New Mexico primaries.

Antiwar Veterans Face Charges

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission has released a report generally favoring construction of a nuclear power plant at Moscow, Ohio, prior to public hearings on a license for the plant, scheduled for Thursday.

The report also outlined environmental considerations for the $315 million generating plant being financed jointly by the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co., the Dayton Power and Light Co. and the Columbus and Southern Electric Co.

Environmental groups, including the Sierra Club and the Izaak Walton League, were scheduled to testify against the plant at the AEC hearing.

Continue Road Talks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Contractors Association and the Laborers Union of Ohio were to reopen contract negotiations today in an effort to avert a threatened walkout that would halt highway construction in the state.

The two sides face a Thursday deadline when the old contract expires for 10,000 members of the Laborers Union. The original expiration date of the contract was April 30, but that was extended to Thursday by mutual agreement.

Ohio Highway Director J. Phillip Richley has said a highway construction strike would stop more than $700 million in projects and postpone bid openings on new construction jobs.

Richley was instrumental in reopening the talks between the Laborers Union and the contractors association, which represents 500 building firms.

Marijuana Ring Broken

YUMA, Ariz. (AP) — One man was killed and two others were arrested after a blazing gunbattle that broke up a marijuana smuggling operation 22 miles west of here, the U.S. Border Patrol said.

Two Borden Patrol agents said they came upon eight men loading several hundred pounds of marijuana onto a truck Monday night near the U.S.-Mexican border.

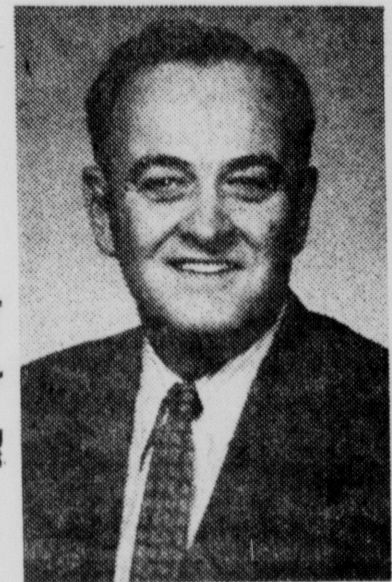

The smugglers opened fire with .45-caliber automatic pistols, striking the border patrol car but failing to hit either of the officers, the Border Patrol said.

Neither the man felled by the agents' return fire nor the two men jailed here were immediately identified

Miss Proxmire, asked what interesting experiences she has had since Transpo opened over the weekend, said: "Mr. Bird came to see me this morning."

She indicated the meeting was pleasant, Bird agreed.

A recent history graduate of Georgetown University, Miss Proxmire was careful not to contradict her father's view of the exposition.

"I can't say whether my father is right about this or not," she said. "I am not economically oriented, and I'm not in a position to know about such matters. It just seems that Transpo is a great success."

Miss Proxmire works part-time for a modeling agency that holds the contract to provide hundreds of attractive young women for Transpo. She hands out Canadian maps, booklets, pins and souvenirs, and answers questions. Although all members of Congress have been invited to Transpo, Miss Proxmire said her father has not visited it.

"He has been in Wisconsin," she said. "He did see my red-and-white uniform before he left and said it was okay except for the red stockings—he didn't like them."

Subversives Questions Are Raised

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is being asked to solve a complex puzzle on how to spot subversives and whether to reform the system for keeping them out of federal jobs.

Nearly a year after President Nixon decided to give the Subversive Activities Control Board some work, the House faced a choice today of either updating and renaming the panel or abolishing it and writing a new law.

Constitutional questions were being raised about both choices, and the Internal Security Committee emerged deeply split after extensive hearings on what to do with the 22-year-old board.

Due in part to Supreme Court rulings, the SACB's five members, each paid $36,000 a year, did virtually nothing for months. The court overruled the board's power to hunt, register and publicize Communist groups.

Last July, Nixon issued an executive order making the board the agency to determine who should go on the attorney general's list of subversive organizations. Federal agencies use the list as a guideline for weeding out job applicants who belong to organizations labeled subversive.

Nixon promptly asked Congress to rename SACB the "federal internal security board" and to endorse its new function. Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio, sponsored the administration measure.

Later, some groups challenged Nixon's order in federal court. The judge dismissed the suit, but indicated he would set the order aside as vague and overly broad if enforcement is attempted.

Reds Shift Air Missiles Back North

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources say the North Vietnamese appear to have shifted surface-to-air missiles back into the Hanoi-Haiphong region to strengthen defenses against heavy U.S. bombing.

Early this year, Hanoi concentrated nearly two-thirds of its 44 antiaircraft-missile battalions in the North Vietnamese panhandle, between the 20th Parallel and the demilitarized zone, in preparation for the invasion of South Vietnam across the DMZ.

Some of those SAM battalions harassed American warplanes when they tried to stem the North Vietnamese advance. One of the battalions was moved into South Vietnam.

Pentagon sources say the redeployment of SAM battalions northward began after big U.S. air raids on targets close to Hanoi and Haiphong in mid-April, which marked a return to the type of bombing campaign carried on by the United States against North Vietnam before the Johnson administration ordered it halted in late 1968.

By early May, sources said, five battalions had been moved from the panhandle into the heavily populated Red River delta region which includes

Reds Shift Air Missiles Back North

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources say the North Vietnamese appear to have shifted surface-to-air missiles back into the Hanoi-Haiphong region to strengthen defenses against heavy U.S. bombing.

Early this year, Hanoi concentrated nearly two-thirds of its 44 antiaircraft-missile battalions in the North Vietnamese panhandle, between the 20th Parallel and the demilitarized zone, in preparation for the invasion of South Vietnam across the DMZ.

Some of those SAM battalions harassed American warplanes when they tried to stem the North Vietnamese advance. One of the battalions was moved into South Vietnam.

Pentagon sources say the redeployment of SAM battalions northward began after big U.S. air raids on targets close to Hanoi and Haiphong in mid-April, which marked a return to the type of bombing campaign carried on by the United States against North Vietnam before the Johnson administration ordered it halted in late 1968.

By early May, sources said, five battalions had been moved from the panhandle into the heavily populated Red River delta region which includes Beginning its third season, the 70-acre oceanarium on Geauga Lake near Aurora is similar to the famous Sea World in San Diego.

Entertaining water shows feature Shamu, the 4,000-pound killer whale, and a 3,000 pound elephant seal. Also performing are dolphins, seals and penguins.

Another outstanding attraction is the water ski show by the 19-member Tommy Bartlett group. Visitors can watch kite flyers soar over 200 feet and the barefoot skiers from the 3,000-seat water ski stadium on Geauga Lake.

Nearby Geauga Lake Park is an amusement center which has undergone major renovations the past few years. Many new rides are among the 40 in the park, including a monorail and "kiddieland."

Metals Park is two miles east of Ohio 306 on route 87. This is the site of the largest geodesic dome in the U.S. An open network of aluminum tubing, the dome is 274 feet in diameter and 103 feet high. Beneath it is the headquarters for the American Society for Metals and a mineral garden of 75 ore specimens.

Lake Punderson State Park, 773 acres, is also on route 87. Nature programs, fishing, swimming, golfing and boat rentals provide a variety of recreational activities. A 32-room lodge and 26 vacation cabins are other features.

Burton's Pioneer Village and Museum are restorations of a typical Western Reserve community around the village green. All buildings are more than 100 years old. The museum contains antiques and historical records.

An unusual state park, Nelson-Kennedy Lodge is on route 282. Its 167 acres are almost entirely rocks, caves and gorges crossed by small streams. Marked trails follow the outcropping of sandstone.

The AAA Club suggests this routing to the tour area: From Circleville, go north on Route 23 to I-270; use the west leg of the Outerbelt (I-270) to I-71; northeast on I-71 to I-271; north on I-271 to Ohio Route 3; north on Ohio Route 8 to Ohio Route 82; east on Ohio Route 82 to the tour area.

Higher Steel Production Being Planned By Industry

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Steelmakers plan to maintain raw steel production and shipments at higher than normal rates during the summer, Industry Week magazine said today.

The business weekly said the seasonal drop in domestic mill shipments of steel in the third quarter is expected to be only 1 million net ton — half the usual decline, the magazine said that would put July to September deliveries at a strong 23.5 million tons.

Several trends were cited by the magazine as reflecting the optimism of steel demand for the summer. It said U.S. mills added nearly 16,000 workers in March, the latest month for which totals are available, and this uptrend is continuing.

Industry Week also pointed out that National Steel Corp.'s Great Lakes Steel Division in Detroit has been recalling workers and that Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., which had planned to curtail blast furnace output at its Pittsburgh Works in August, has canceled that move — requiring a reshuffling of employee vacation schedules. The magazine also said that indications were that summer-only help at mills will be higher than usual.

Construction demand for steel is coming on strong after a slow start, especially in such product lines as galvanized steel and reinforcing bars, the magazine said. The business weekly added that the second half of the year was expected to bring higher demand for steel plate and structural products.

In addition, Industry Week said the bar market continues to be strong, too mill operations are high and the demand for pipe is improving. The magazine said cyclical gains also are anticipated in steel buying by capital goods producers, and that automakers are booking June steel deliveries for the 1973 models at a fair rate.

One cloud on the horizon, the magazine said, is the Ford Motor Co. warning that it might be forced to shut down new car production for several months because of problems in getting its 1973 engines certified under federal air pollution standards.

Industry Week estimated that U.S. mills poured 2,720,000 net tons of raw steel in the week ended May 27 compared to the 2,703,000 tons the previous week. It said domestic mills reported that March deliveries of 7.9 million net tons were the highest since last July when strike hedging upped volume. The magazine's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting steelmaking scrap remained at $35.83 per gross ton for the third consecutive week.

Space Souvenirs Donated To Center

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Thanking space workers for making possible an "out of this world" ride, Apollo 16 astronauts donated three moonlanding souvenirs to the Kennedy Space Center.

The presents were an American flag, a Florida flag and a mission emblem. They were mounted with an inscription that reads:

"To the men and women of the Kennedy Space Center in appreciation for a ride that is literally and figuratively out of this world."

Industry Week also pointed out that National Steel Corp.'s Great Lakes Steel Division in Detroit has been recalling workers and that Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., which had planned to curtail blast furnace output at its Pittsburgh Works in August, has canceled that move — requiring a reshuffling of employee vacation schedules. The magazine also said that indications were that summer-only help at mills will be higher than usual.

Brinker Breaks Record Again

In the Pickaway County Track Meet May 15 at Logan Elm, Jack Brinker again broke his own record. He set a meet record in the shot put with a toss of 54 feet 2 3/4 inches to break his old mark of 49 feet 10 1/2 inches set last year. Congratulations, Jack!

Bob Smith, senior, captured the two-mile run with a time of 10:22.

Teays Valley placed second in the four-school meet, with Circleville High School successfully defending its Pickaway County Track title.

New Student Likes TVHS

By ESTILL SALYERS
Debbie Westfall, a sophomore, came from Pierce Junior High School in Tampa, Florida, with her father, John Westfall. They live at 5010 North Walnut Street, South Bloomfield.

Debbie enjoys going to TVHS and says it is a "great school." Debbie likes purple, hamburgers, dogs, and the song "I Need You." She dislikes early hours and snobbish people.

Sorry, Deb

In the article on the Home Economics Style Show, Deb Gilbert's name was omitted as one of those girls who modeled. Deb was the only junior who modeled an outfit in the style show.

Council Of Churches Raps State Lottery

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The general board of the Ohio Council of Churches has officially come out against a resolution pending in the Legislature which would put on the November ballot a proposal to repeal the state's constitutional ban on lotteries.

The lottery question originally was scheduled for the May 2 primary ballot, but the Ohio Supreme Court ruled it off the ballot because of procedural errors. The Council of Churches officially remained neutral on the issue the first time around.

The New York Stock Exchange began on May 17, 1972, with 24 brokers meeting on Wall Street and setting up a central marketplace for investors to buy and sell securities.

Calley Sent To Vietnam Illegally?

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The Army has "virtually admitted" that Lt. William Calley was sent to Vietnam illegally the Daily Oklahoman reported in Saturday's editions.

A Pentagon spokesman has acknowledged, the newspaper said, that Calley was sent to Vietnam under an Army regulation that forbids assigning second lieutenants to hostile zones until they have had four months of leadership experience.

Calley was convicted last year of murdering 22 civilians at the hamlet of My Lai on March 16, 1968 and was sentenced to life in prison. The sentence later was reduced to 20 years, and the case is still being reviewed.

Calley's lawyer, George W. Latimer of Salt Lake City, told the newspaper the disclosure might have considerable significance in Calley's appeal, pending before the U.S. Army Court of Military Review in Washington.

A Pentagon spokesman, L.T. Col SK Fisk, told the Daily Oklahoman he is asking the Army's general counsel and the Judge Advocate General's office for a strict interpretation of the legality or illegality of Calley's deployment.

Heart Needs Watts

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — When the human heart operates at 100 per cent efficiency it requires eight watts of power, reports the Arizona Heart Institute. The report also said an artificial heart requires 32 watts of power and would be no more than 25 per cent efficient as a healthy human heart.

One problem to solve in the development of an artificial heart is how to dissipate the heat generated by 32 watts of power.

Lose 20 Pounds In Two Weeks!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's the diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is honestly a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $2.00 ($2.25 for Rush Service — Cash is O.K. — to: Ski Team Diet, P.O. Box 15493, San Diego, California 92115. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!

WALLHIDE® FOR THE HUSBAND WHO CAN'T HIDE.

So your wife wants you to paint a room or two. No use trying to hide. She'll find you. Fast.

The best thing to do is buy a paint that eliminates most of the work: Wallhide Latex Flat Wall Paint.

Wallhide Latex is a latex paint that does away with stirring, scrubbing, and priming. All you have to do is apply one easy coat. And stains are gone, rough spots are smoothed over. Paint dries in thirty minutes.

Wallhide makes clean-up easy, too. Simply rinse out your brush with soap and water. That's all.

So you see, it would take more effort to hide than to paint.

WALLHIDE... the husband helper.

Brinker Breaks Record Again

In the Pickaway County Track Meet May 15 at Logan Elm, Jack Brinker again broke his own record. He set a meet record in the shot put with a toss of 54 feet 2 3/4 inches to break his old mark of 49 feet 10 1/2 inches set last year. Congratulations, Jack!

Bob Smith, senior, captured the two-mile run with a time of 10:22.

Teays Valley placed second in the four-school meet, with Circleville High School successfully defending its Pickaway County Track title.

New Student Likes TVHS

By ESTILL SALYERS
Debbie Westfall, a sophomore, came from Pierce Junior High School in Tampa, Florida, with her father, John Westfall. They live at 5010 North Walnut Street, South Bloomfield.

Debbie enjoys going to TVHS and says it is a "great school." Debbie likes purple, hamburgers, dogs, and the song "I Need You." She dislikes early hours and snobbish people.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The general board of the Ohio Council of Churches has officially come out against a resolution pending in the Legislature which would put on the November ballot a proposal to repeal the state's constitutional ban on lotteries.

The lottery question originally was scheduled for the May 2 primary ballot, but the Ohio Supreme Court ruled it off the ballot because of procedural errors. The Council of Churches officially remained neutral on the issue the first time around.

Lose 20 Pounds In Two Weeks!

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important!) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way. It's the diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is honestly a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't, the U.S. Women's Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So, give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Lose weight the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That is, if you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this out as a reminder.

Send only $2.00 ($2.25 for Rush Service — Cash is O.K. — to: Ski Team Diet, P.O. Box 15493, San Diego, California 92115. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!

Storms Hit In Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A storm system edging across the Midwest today ended nearly two weeks of summer-like heat in the midcontinent.

A wave of cooler air rolling eastward triggered showers and thunderstorms from Minnesota and Ohio to Louisiana and parts of Texas.

Falling temperatures accompanying the storms were most noticeable in the northern Midwest, where temperatures had been running from 10 to 20 degrees above the seasonal normals.

As the cooler weather spread over the Northern Plains and Mississippi Valley, warmer air began flowing into the previously cool Northeast and Northwest.

Aside from a few weak thunderstorms in the Southeast and over parts of Texas and Arizona, the rest of the nation remained dry.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 87 at Needles, Calif., to 38 degrees at Scottsbluff, Neb.

As open space in the United States has decreased, the country's national parks have expanded.

NEW YORK (AP) — It was ABC's turn to tackle the pollution problem with a special Monday night called "Oceans: The Silent Crisis." It concentrated not on oceans so much as on the threatened deaths of the Mississippi River and Galveston Bay from chemical poisons.

Certainly most Americans are by now familiar with pictures of fuming industrial wastes pouring into streams and rivers, and with statements of officials that "human health is endangered." But the report that "the fifth of half the nation" pours into the Mississippi is alarming and dismaying.

The hour program showed company executives, pollution control experts or large corporations and public officials trying to explain, somewhat nervously, that they were trying to do something to control industrial waste or attempting to dismiss the reports. One used such earthy language the part of his response had to be erased from the sound track.

A physician told of a newly reported pollution - caused disease which is killing bathers in the United States, Australia, Belgium, England and Ireland. It was followed by an interview with the tearful widow of a man who had died of it.

Frank Reynolds came on camera at the end of the hour to say the solution to industrial and sewage pollution was "simple and expensive" but that the public and industry must be ready to assume the cost of cleaning things up—or else.

The ABC hour was basically a repetition of much that has been written and filmed before.

While it made no suggestions about what one citizen could do, it may have been part of a larger effort to stimulate rescue efforts in legislative halls and directors' rooms.

For about an hour Monday there was a vivid demonstration of the fragility of international communications from Moscow.

The cameras were focused on the farewell ceremonies for President Nixon and his party, leaving Moscow for Kiev.

For almost an hour the satellite-relayed pictures were showing the crowd gathered to send the party on its way, but nobody seemed to know what was going on except that obviously the Russian plane with the President had not taken off.

Eventually word came that there had been engine trouble on the first plane, and the party had been moved to a back-up plane. But while the commetemps was in progress, the viewer had the feeling he was sitting in the back row of history in the making.

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — Lt. (j.g.) William Driscoll, one of the Navy's first two air aces of the Vietnam war, says he supports President Nixon's blockade of Haiphong harbor in North Vietnam but if others dissent that's their right.

"One of the basic precepts of this country is the right to dissent," the 25-year-old radar intercept officer said in an interview. "It doesn't make me angry and if that's the way people feel they've got a right to express it."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Husbands Can Forgive, Forget, Too

DEAR ABBY: An unfaithful wife who had been caught in the act, wrote in part: "What's with men anyway? Are understanding, compassion, and forgiveness qualities that only women possess? If you know of one man who'd be willing to sit down with an erring wife, discuss the problem, forgive her and suggest they start over, please nominate him for sainthood."

Well, my husband qualifies. He caught me in the act, not once, but three times (with the same man) and each time he forgave me, and now we have a stronger marriage than ever.

MARRIED TO A SAINT

DEAR ABBY: I don't know whether this qualifies me for sainthood or not, but I did catch my wife with another man, and I forgave her. All she said in her defense was, "Well, now we're even."

She was right.

NOMINEE IN TAMPA

DEAR ABBY: I'd like to nominate my husband for sainthood. After nearly 20 years of marriage I fell in love with another man (also married). The other man's wife found out about it and raised such a stink that my husband gave up a thriving professional practice to move as far away as possible from that little community.

The other woman divorced her husband, but my husband stood by me. I am trying to make it up to him by being the best possible wife there ever was. My man is one in a million.

FORGIVEN IN WINONA

DEAR ABBY: So, women want men who are "understanding, compassionate and forgiving?" Well, I was married for 26 years. Then my wife left me saying "I simply can't stand a man who is so understanding, compassionate and forgiving."

We've been divorced for five years, and since then I have treated women like dirt and they love it!

EX-SAINT

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a saint with a triple halo. He not only forgave me, but at a great financial sacrifice he secured psychological counseling for me. Even as I write this I am struggling to keep from making a phone call to let "the other man" know that my husband will be out of town and I'll be available.

Counseling is expensive, but when I look at my beautiful family I realize it's worth holding marriage together for. Besides, believe it or not, no woman ever had a better husband.

STILL FIGHTING IN SEATTLE

DEAR ABBY: The saint you are searching for is living in Houston. I was the unfaithful wife. He caught me with his best friend but he didn't get mad and try to kill anybody. He calmly walked away and came back the next day to talk things over. This wonderful man was big enough to say, "Maybe it's partly my fault. If I had paid you more attention you wouldn't need anybody else."

We both decided that we'd try to make a go of our marriage. This happened 31 years ago, and God willing, we will celebrate our 50th this June.

HAPPY IN HOUSTON

DEAR ABBY: If you are looking for a saint, look no further. I am married to him.

This man was a fighting Marine whose wife gave birth to a baby in his absence that couldn't possibly have been his. He forgave her, raised that boy as if he were his own and he never once mentioned it again.

HIS WIFE

DEAR ABBY: I'd like to nominate myself for sainthood. My wife left me for another man. Three weeks later he kicked her out, and I took her back. She got herself $3,000 in debt, gambling, and I paid it off. The only time she ever said "no" was when somebody asked her if she'd had enough. We're still married.

How The Weather Looks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The long period of dry weather in Ohio, came to an end as the holiday weekend drew to a close. Showers spread over the southern and western counties Monday afternoon and then diminished during the evening. Monday night showers developed over the northwestern half of the state. Measured amounts varied from a trace in some areas to well over an inch elsewhere.

High pressure that ruled the weather picture for so long has now receded into the Atlantic. Low pressure extends from Quebec to Arkansas. The cold front embedded in this low was moving eastward across Ohio today.

Temperature readings this morning were in the 60s. Cloudiness and showers were keeping today's temperatures considerably lower than yesterday's. The slow-moving cold front will set off showers and thundershowers tonight with a chance of a few showers lingering into Wednesday. Cooler air spreading in behind the front Wednesday is expected to hold the mercury in the 60s.

Jim Meeker Captures Action Packed Atomic Feature Race

In what ordinarily would have been the Memorial Day championships but could have been billed as a demolition derby or old-timers' night, the experienced veterans were making the rounds with the checkered flags in Atomic Speedway's weekly program Saturday night.

Cigar-chomping Jim Meeker of Chillicothe, who has been burning up the tracks for almost as many years as the younger drivers have been around, showed he still has the touch by winning the 25-lap feature and the dash for the four fastest cars and running third in the fast heat.

After Audie Swartz and Joe Frazer had battled through the early rounds from their front-row start, the sixth-starting Meeker went into the lead on the 22nd lap to win his first Atomic feature since picking up a pair of 1970 big ones — the Memorial Championship and the Tri-State Invitational.

Portsmouth-based Swartz, another dirt track veteran, held on for second in a close finish with Meeker, with Ray Kenens of Lafayette, Ind., third. Four cars were bunched at the front of the pack through almost the whole race.

For his second straight feature in the super stock class, Sklyp-Waterman of Columbus inherited the lead when Curt Boice of Lancaster lost a wheel in front of the flagman after leading seven laps and Bud Newman lost his steering on the restart after being put in front.

Boice's misfortune triggered several wrecks and in other mishaps for the night seven of the starters were knocked out before the first modified heat race was half run and Fred Payne of Circleville and Jerry McDonald of Waverly went over the banks in the stock class.

The only injury was to Ed Angle of Kokomo, Ind., who was hit near the eye by a rock thrown up from the track on the seventh lap of the feature. The race had to be stopped to allow him to be removed to a hospital for treatment.

In other modified events Roy Singleton of Manchester, another old-timer, and Kenens led all of the way to win the heat races and veteran Sam Erwin of Portsmouth picked up the consi. Bob Papoy of Aurora, Ind., had the fastest qualifying time of the year.

Bud Newman and Waterman were the stock heat winners and Emmett Beeler took the consi.

Attendance, Handle Dip At River Downs

CINCINNATI (AP) — Attendance and handle were down Monday at River Downs despite hopes by track officials for an upswing after the closing of Churchill Downs in Louisville, Ky. Saturday.

A crowd of 9,842 bet $747,175. The crowd was down more than 2,000 from Memorial Day last year and the betting was off by $50,000, a track spokesman said.

Miss Capable, shipped in from Churchill, easily won the $10,000 added six furlong Lo-santiville Handicap by 2 1/2 lengths in 1:13, despite the muddy track. She paid $3.60, $2.80 and $2.60, with Flipper Dipper second, $7.60 and $480 and Denise's Kitten third, $600.

Gary Erskine, 21, of Anderson, Ind., is an outfielder on the Texas Longhorn baseball team. His father, Carl Erskine, pitched for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Post 757 Splits Twinbill With Waverly Legion

Chillicothe American Legion Post 757 split a doubleheader with Waverly Sunday on the latter's field.

Area athletes performing with Chillicothe are Dave Truex, Rock Davis and Greg Hoskins of Circleville and Gary Francis of Logan Elm.

Chillicothe took the first game, 10-2, but dropped the nightcap, 10-5.

Davis had a triple and two singles and six runs batted in in the twinbill while Truex added a double and a pair of one baggers.

Francis came on in relief in the opener and hurled two innings. He fanned three and didn't give up a hit or walk.

He also smashed a long double in his only trip to the plate. Hoskins was ill and did not see any action in the doubleheader.

Post 757 will host Logan 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Chillicothe City Park.

Orioles Turn Back Indians, 6-1

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"I'd hate to think where we'd be without Don Baylor, Terry Crowley and Bobby Grich," Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver mused.

One thing for sure—the Orioles wouldn't be leading the American League East today. Cleveland ambled into Baltimore four games ago, leading the division. But after running headlong into the Orioles' kiddie corps and their quartet of 20-game winners, the Indians crawled out of town in third, 1 1/2 games off the pace.

Baylor, Grich and right-hander Pat Dobson did the damage Monday night in leading the Orioles to a 6-1 triumph for a series sweep.

In other American League games, the New York Yankees

Bob Lunn Wins Atlanta Golf Classic

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Soft-spoken Californian Bob Lunn departed for another stop on the PGA tour with a 16-month winless drought broken, and Jack Nicklaus didn't think his Atlanta Classic downfall would affect his preparation for the United States Open.

"I really didn't think about winning the tournament until the 18th hole when I made that last putt," said Lunn, who had won only $7,300 this year before pocketing the $26,000 first prize in the $130,000 Atlanta tournament.

It was Lunn's first victory since his January, 1971 triumph at Los Angeles. It also was his second Atlanta title; he won this tournament in 1968.

Lunn started the final round Sunday in a deadlock for the lead with Gary Player, while Nicklaus, who had a course record 64 Friday, was only three shots back.

Player drew even when Lunn bogeyed the 14th, but the South African fell one shot back when he bogeyed at 15.

Lunn was standing in the 18th fairway watching as Player sank a 12-foot birdie putt, forcing the big Californian to par the final hole to avoid a tie.

Lunn sent his approach only six feet from the pin and made it for a birdie that gave him a 69 for a 275 total over the par 72, 6,883-yard Atlanta Country Club course.

Meanwhile, Nicklaus had skied to a 75 in the third round and went to a fat 76 on the final day.

Player was second with a 277 total, followed by Lou Graham at 278, Romero Blancas and Dave Hill at 279, and Gary Brewer at 280.

All-Star Game Set; Players Not Chosen

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — What could be billed as a professional all-star basketball game will be played here tonight—but nobody will know for sure until game time who's playing and for what team.

The game, in which stars from both the National and American Basketball Associations are listed to take part, is a benefit affair for Rubicon, the antidrug organization, and the brainchild of veteran player Ray Scott of the ABA's Virginia Squires.

took a pair from Detroit 5-1 and 4-p, Oakland whipped Texas twice 4-1 and 7-1, the Chicago White Sox beat California 5-4 before the Angels won the 10-inning second game 3-2, Milwaukee shelled Boston 11-3 and Kansas City's game at Minnesota was rained out.

In the National League, the New York Mets defeated the St. Louis 7-6, the Chicago Cubs beat Montreal 5-2, Atlanta nipped San Diego 2-1, Cincinnati pumeled Houston 8-3, Los Angeles downed San Francisco 5-2 and Pittsburgh took two from Philadelphia 7-3 and 4-2.

Dobson tossed a five-hitter as the Indians managed just 19 hits and four runs in the four games. Crowley had an off night at the plate but Baylor and Grich continued their hot performances with a run-batted-in apiece while Merv Rettenmund singled, doubled and tripled and scored twice.

The Orioles got all the runs they needed against Dick Tidrow in the first inning Monday night as Baylor singled to left to score Rettenmund, then came home himself as Boog

Powell singled. Grich doubled Rettenmund home in a two-run fifth.

A relief pitcher here, a pinch-hitter there—that was how the Yanks swept Detroit. Successive pinch doubles by Ron Swoboda and Rusty Torres, the latter a two-run shot, turned the nightcap around for the Yankees after Steve Kline had outdueled eight-game winner Mickey Lolich in the opener.

In the first game, successive sacrifice flies by Swoboda and Hal Lanier, a couple of replacements in the lineup, gave New York a 2-0 lead in the seventh and it ballooned to 5-0 in the eighth on three walks, Felipe Alou's fly ball and Torres' double.

"I think we can win the Western Division," Oakland Manager Dick Williams said after the A's twin triumphs over Texas. "We had it all today—pitching and hitting."

The A's had it all in the seventh inning of the opener, scoring all their runs as Joe Rudi drilled a leadoff homer and George Hendrick followed with a three-run game-winning shot.

And they had all they needed in first inning of the finale, scoring five runs, three of them on Mike Epstein's homer. Reggie Jackson also homered for Oakland in the seventh. The sweep extended the A's winning streak to five games.

Like Oakland's first game, the White Sox won their opener with a late-inning home run blitz. Chicago's came in the eighth when they wiped out California's 4-1 lead on Pat Kelly's leadoff homer and Bill Melton's three-run shot.

In the nightcap, two-out singles in the bottom of the 10th by Vada Pinson and Bob Oliver and a walk to Ken McMullen brought up Leroy Stanton, who had knocked in three first-game runs. And the California right fielder came through with a game-winning single to left.

Billy Conigliaro drilled two homers and a triple and John Briggs and George Scott each walloped one homer to power the Brewers past the Red Sox.

Montgomery slammed a homer for the General Electric team.

DuPont Day Shift downed Tomlinson Electric 15-9 with Joe Huhn pitching off the mound.

Don Rowland went 4 for 5 at the plate for DuPont while team mates Jim Richards and Dick Baranick went 3 for 4.

Mick Tomlinson went 4 for 4 at the plate and Chet Irey Sr. was 2 for 2 for the losing team.

Circleville Oil dumped DuPont "G" Shift 21-0 with Lester Smith firing a two hit shutout.

Big John Glanton smacked a homerun and Bob Parker went 3 for 3 in hitting for the winners.

Club president Allan H. Selig roused Bristol out of bed Sunday with a pre-dawn announcement that he was being fired, but denied general manager Frank Lane had applied the pressure.

Lane's 10-player winter trade with the Red Sox had not put the Brewers in the winning column, and they had slumped to the American League's worst record.

Bristol displayed surprise at the announcement he received in Boston, but denied he had any grudges.

Crandall, a former all-star catcher, left the Milwaukee Braves in 1963 and has been manager of the Evansville minor league club for more than a year.

In contrast to Bristol's iron-fist attitude toward exhausting drills and clubhouse training rules, Crandall radiated bliss as he checked in Monday.

"If I have any conviction about managing," he said, "it is that baseball should be fun; fun for the players and fun for the fans."

Orioles Turn Back Indians, 6-1

By BRUCE LOWITT

Associated Press Sports Writer
"I'd hate to think where we'd be without Don Baylor, Terry Crowley and Bobby Grich," Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver mused.

One thing for sure—the Orioles wouldn't be leading the American League East today.

Cleveland ambled into Baltimore four games ago, leading the division. But after running headlong into the Orioles' kid-die corps and their quartet of 20-game winners, the Indians crawled out of town in third, 1 1/2 games off the pace.

Baylor, Grich and right-hander Pat Dobson did the damage Monday night in leading the Orioles to a 6-1 triumph for a series sweep.

In other American League games, the New York Yankees

took a pair from Detroit 5-1 and 4-p. Oakland whipped Texas twice 4-1 and 7-1, the Chicago White Sox beat California 5-4 before the Angels won the 10-inning second game 3-2, Milwaukee shelled Boston 11-3 and Kansas City's game at Minnesota was rained out.

In the National League, the New York Mets defeated St. Louis 7-6, the Chicago Cubs beat Montreal 5-2, Atlanta nipped San Diego 2-1, Cincinnati pumeled Houston 8-3, Los Angeles downed San Francisco 5-2 and Pittsburgh took two from Philadelphia 7-3 and 4-2.

Dobson tossed a five-hitter as the Indians managed just 19 hits and four runs in the four games. Crowley had an off night at the plate but Baylor and Grich continued their hot performances with a run-batted-in apiece while Merv Rettenmund singled, doubled and tripled and scored twice.

The Orioles got all the runs they needed against Dick Tidrow in the first inning Monday night as Baylor singled to left to score Rettenmund, then came home himself as Boog

Powell singled. Grich doubled Rettenmund home in a two-run fifth.

A relief pitcher here, a pinch-hitter there—that was how the Yanks swept Detroit.

Successive pinch doubles by Ron Swoboda and Rusty Torres, the latter a two-run shot, turned the nightcap around for the Yankees after Steve Kline had outdueled eight-game winner Mickey Lolich in the opener.

In the first game, successive sacrifice flies by Swoboda and Hal Lanier, a couple of replacements in the lineup, gave New York a 2-0 lead in the seventh and it ballooned to 5-0 in the eighth on three walks, Felipe Alou's fly ball and Torres' double.

"I think we can win the Western Division," Oakland Manager Dick Williams said after the A's twin triumphs over Texas. "We had it all today—pitching and hitting."

The A's had it all in the seventh inning of the opener, scoring all their runs as Joe Rudi drilled a leadoff homer and George Hendrick followed with a three-run game-winning shot.

And they had all they needed in first inning of the finale, scoring five runs, three of them on Mike Epstein's homer. Reggie Jackson also homered for Oakland in the seventh. The sweep extended the A's winning streak to five games.

Like Oakland's first game, the White Sox won their opener with a late-inning home run blitz. Chicago's came in the eighth when they wiped out California's 4-1 lead on Pat Kelly's leadoff homer and Bill Melton's three-run shot.

In the nightcap, two-out singles in the bottom of the 10th by Vada Pinson and Bob Oliver and a walk to Ken McMullen brought up Leroy Stanton, who had knocked in three first-game runs. And the California right fielder came through with a game-winning single to left.

Billy Conigliaro drilled two homers and a triple and Johny Briggs and George Scott each walloped one homer to power the Brewers past the Red Sox.

Montgomery slammed a homerun for the General Electric team.

DuPont Day Shift downed Tomlinson Electric 15-9 with Joe Huhn pitching off the mound.

Don Rowland went 4 for 5 at the plate for DuPont while team mates Jim Richards and Dick Baranick went 3 for 4.

Mick Tomlinson went 4 for 4 at the plate and Chet Irey Sr. was 2 for 2 for the losing team.

Circleville Oil dumped DuPont "G" Shift 21-0 with Lester Smith firing a two hit shutout.

Big John Glanton smacked a homerun and Bob Parker went 3 for 3 in hitting for the winners.

Bob Lunn Wins Atlanta Golf Classic

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Soft-spoken Californian Bob Lunn departed for another stop on the PGA tour with a 16-month winless drought broken, and Jack Nicklaus didn't think his Atlanta Classic downfall would affect his preparation for the United States Open.

"I really didn't think about winning the tournament until the 18th hole when I made that last putt," said Lunn, who had won only $7,300 this year before pocketing the $26,000 first prize in the $130,000 Atlanta tournament.

It was Lunn's first victory since his January, 1971 triumph at Los Angeles. It also was his second Atlanta title; he won this tournament in 1968.

Lunn started the final round Sunday in a deadlock for the lead with Gary Player, while Nicklaus, who had a course record 64 Friday, was only three shots back.

Player drew even when Lunn bogeyed the 14th, but the South African fell one shot back when he bogeyed at 15.

Lunn was standing in the 18th fairway watching as Player sank a 12-foot birdie putt, forcing the big Californian to par the final hole to avoid a tie.

Lunn sent his approach only six feet from the pin and made it for a birdie that gave him a 69 for a 275 total over the par 72, 6,883-yard Atlanta Country Club course.

Meanwhile, Nicklaus had skied to a 75 in the third round and went to a fat 76 on the final day.

Player was second with a 277 total, followed by Lou Graham at 278, Homero Blancas and Dave Hill at 279, and Gary Brewer at 280.

All-Star Game Set; Players Not Chosen

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — What could be billed as a professional all-star basketball game will be played here tonight—but nobody will know for sure until game time who's playing and for what team.

The game, in which stars from both the National and American Basketball Associations are listed to take part, is a benefit affair for Rubicon, the antidrug organization, and the brainchild of veteran player Ray Scott of the ABA's Virginia Squires.

Post 757 will host Logan 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Chillicothe City Park.

Jerry Grant Ends Up 12th As Donohue Wins Indy 500

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — "It's kind of bad to take somebody's place," Al Unser said. "I don't feel like we belong up here in second place."

Nobody took Mark Donohue's place. He won the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race. But Unser, who finished third in the running, wound up second after original runner-up Jerry Grant was bumped down to 12th for illegal refueling.

Donohue, a 35-year-old engineering graduate from Brown University, captured the 56th edition of the Memorial Weekend classic Saturday and took home a cool $218,767.90 for it.

Gary Bettenhausen, of Tinley Park, Ill., led for 126 of the 200 laps. But with only 18 of them remaining, ignition troubles knocked him out of the race, leaving Grant in front.

And just six laps later, Grant, of Seattle, scooted into the pits for quick repairs on a vibrating right front wheel—and Donohue had the lead.

He held it for the remaining 12 laps—30 miles—to win with a record average speed of 162.962 miles an hour. He also turned the fastest single lap at 187.539.

Al Unser, who failed in his bid to win his third straight Indy, was third when the cars crossed the finish line and Joe Leonard was fourth.

But after speedway officials upheld a protest by Unser's chief mechanic, George Bignotti, Grant was bounced out of the top 10, boosting the other finishers up a notch. The officials said Grant improperly took fuel from teammate Bobby Unser's tank during that final pit stop.

The infraction cost Grant more than just the No. 2 spot. While Al Unser took home $95,257.89 for second place and Leonard received $58,797.89, Grant wound up with $23,852.85—a loss of some $72,000 for the penalty.

There was auto racing in places other than Indianapolis over the Memorial Day weekend, too.

At Charlotte, N.C., Buddy Baker drove his red Dodge to a one-mile victory Sunday in the World 600 stock car race, averaging 142.255 mile per hour and earning $21,975.

Bobby Allison gunning for his third consecutive victory in the race, had his Chevrolet 100 yards in front of Baker with just 50 miles to go when his right rear tire flattened.

Charlie Glotbach finished third in a Dodge, more than 12 miles back. Benny Parsons was fourth and LeeRoy Yarbrough fifth, both in Mercurys.

Also Sunday, three-times Indianapolis 500 winner A.J. Foyt was hospitalized with first and second degree burns suffered during a pit stop in a 100-lap United States Auto Club dirt-track event at Du Quoin, Ill.

The mishap occurred when Foyt jerked a gas hose loose, spilling on his back and over the cockpit of his car. Foyt jumped from the car, his clothing ablaze. He was hospitalized and listed in "good" condition Monday night, but will have to undergo ankle surgery.

Denis Hulme of New Zealand outdueling Emerson Fittipaldi of Brazil to win Monday's Formula 1 Gold Cup race at Oulton Park, England, averaging 115.17 miles per hour. Hulme was driving a McLaren, Fittipaldi a John Player Special (Lotus).

George Follmer, who lost his pole starting position at the Bryar 200 Trans-Am road race at Loudon, N.H. Monday because his car wouldn't start, took over his teammate's Javelin and drove it to victory, averaging 75.351 miles per hour.

Milt Minter, driving a Pontiac Firebird, finished second, two laps back.

Parochial Tax Credit Plan Faces Dubious Court Future

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess, R-4 Perryburg, today predicted easy passage of a tax credit plan for parents of private school students, but said he was uncertain of its fate in the courts.

Kurfess said the tax credit plan plus two measures from the Senate—calling for a state environmental protection agency and uniform property tax assessment—would top the House agenda as the 109th General Assembly returned today from the holiday weekend.

Kurfess said a House floor vote will be held this week on the tax credit plan, a form of state aid to parochial schools designed to get federal court approval.

"Whether the courts buy it, I don't know," the speaker said. He added that he had no alternative to the tax credit plan.

The proposal would permit parents of parochial school pupils to deduct $90 per student from their state income tax.

Federal courts in Ohio and around the country have rejected state subsidies for teachers in nonpublic schools as well as subsidies to parents of private school children. The courts found the plans in violation of the U.S. Constitution requiring separation of church and state.

The lower chamber will also consider two measures approved by the Senate last week. One creates a state environmental protection agency modeled after the existing federal body.

The other measure, Kurfess said, will provide "an orderly method for each county to comply with the Board of Tax Appeals' decision."

The board set uniform property tax assessment at 35 percent of the true value.

Without legislative action, the board ruling would produce windfalls for taxpayers in some counties, while tax rates would soar in others.

The proposal before the House would permit the counties to continue their present assessment levels until their next scheduled reappraisals. Property is reappraised every six years on a staggered basis among the 88 counties.

local athletes as this was the largest contingent of youthful gladiators to ever represent Pickaway County in the State Track Meet.

The winning time in the Class A two-mile run was 9:46.6, while the mile run was captured with a time of 4:31.1.

This was the climax of a fine track season for Frericks who set a Circleville High School record earlier in the season when he soared the discus 172 feet 8½ inches. He also set several meet records during the year in the discus and shot put.

Frericks also set a Circleville record in the shot earlier in the season with a toss of 56 feet 3 inches.

BINKER set a Teays Valley record in the shot during the season while Westfall's Kennedy added a 10.1 mark in the 100-yard dash earlier this year for another Mustang record.

All six of these young men went to the state track meet as one of the top 16 competitors in their event and did themselves up proud.

It was a remarkable year for Circleville who had never had an individual state champion. Suddenly it all fell into place this season and the Tigers came up with three state title holders.

Steve Richards started it off when he won the state cross country title. Mark Davey captured the 185-pound state wrestling crown and Frericks capped it with his award winning effort in the discus.

HHH, McGovern Set 2nd Debate In California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and George McGovern are heading into their second campaign confrontation in pivotal California still debating the issues of the first—welfare and the war.

Humphrey slapped at McGovern welfare proposals, McGovern at Humphrey's record on Vietnam policy as the two Democratic senators prepared to face each other in a nationally televised appearance tonight.

And Minnesota's Humphrey sought to revive and take over a familiar issue by challenging McGovern to disclose how much money he is spending on the California presidential primary campaign.

There was irony in that, since it was McGovern who first made public his over-all campaign finances, and turned the topic into a major issue at the start of the primary season.

That was in New Hampshire, when he was rated at best a long shot in the race.

Now it is McGovern versus Humphrey, head to head, for 271 Democratic presidential nominating votes in the California primary a week away.

Their campaign tone since Sunday night, when they appeared together in a national television interview, indicated the dispute might become even more heated as they meet again.

The television appearances billed as debates but actually joint interviews broadcast by the national television networks, have become centerpieces in the California campaign.

Humphrey planned two campaign appearances in Los Angeles today, then set aside time to prepare for the television appearance. McGovern scheduled a news conference on conversion of the economy to a peacetime basis and cleared his schedule to rest and get ready for the second round.

It will be broadcast on the National Broadcasting Co. program "Meet the Press," for an hour beginning at 9:30 p.m. EDT. The final McGovern-Humphrey matchup is scheduled Sunday, on the American Broadcasting Co.

Humphrey raised the finance question in Sacramento Monday, saying that "the selling of a president ought not to become a habit in this country."

The former vice president said his California primary campaign had cost $299,000 through May 22. That partial accounting did not cover the period after costly radio and television commercials began.

A McGovern spokesman, Kirby Jones, said the primary campaign budget for the South Dakota senator is $1.25 million.

Humphrey is known to be facing a financial squeeze in his California campaign, and McGovern is certain to outspend him by a wide margin.

Glorified real estate advertising is hardly new. When Eric the Red discovered Greenland in 982, he gave the Arctic island its misleading name in a successful bid to attract Viking colonists.

Kite Flier Killed In Fall At Exhibition

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I think we have a problem," the public address announcer said as Robert Kennedy of Escondido, Calif., plummeted from the sky.

Thousands of spectators at Transpo 72, the international transportation exposition, watched Monday as the 26-year-old kite flier fell to his death.

A member of the Australian Birdman Team, Kennedy was killed when he lost control of his kite at an altitude of about 500 feet. He was being pulled into the air at the time by a speeding automobile.

"He was in a steep climb when all of a sudden a gust of wind hit him or something," said Jack Wallace, 31, of Leesburg, Va., who witnessed the accident.

"His feet suddenly flipped over the kite and he landed back on top of it. He yelled, 'Oh, no,' and you could see him kicking and fighting as the kite wrapped around him. As it folded up, he fell straight to the ground, just like a stone."

Kennedy landed in a grassy area at the north end of the runway, away from the spectators' stand but within view of thousands.

A public address announcer was promoting Kennedy's daring when the kite collapsed.

Kennedy, who had been flying his kite professionally for more than three years, was rushed to a medical station by helicopter. A team of three physicians, who pronounced him dead 15 minutes after he fell, said he suffered multiple head injuries and compound fractures throughout the rest of his body.

Parochial Tax Credit Plan Faces Dubious Court Future

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess, R-4 Perryburg, today predicted easy passage of a tax credit plan for parents of private school students, but said he was uncertain of its fate in the courts.

Kurfess said the tax credit plan plus two measures from the Senate—calling for a state environmental protection agency and uniform property tax assessment—would top the House agenda as the 109th General Assembly returned today from the holiday weekend.

Kurfess said a House floor vote will be held this week on the tax credit plan, a form of state aid to parochial schools designed to get federal court approval.

"Whether the courts buy it, I don't know," the speaker said. He added that he had no alternative to the tax credit plan.

The proposal would permit parents of parochial school pupils to deduct $90 per student from their state income tax. Federal courts in Ohio and around the country have rejected state subsidies for teachers in nonpublic schools as well as subsidies to parents of private school children. The courts found the plans in violation of the U.S. Constitution requiring separation of church and state.

The lower chamber will also consider two measures approved by the Senate last week. One creates a state environmental protection agency modeled after the existing federal body.

The other measure, Kurfess said, will provide "an orderly method for each county to comply with the Board of Tax Appeals' decision."

The board set uniform property tax assessment at 35 percent of the true value.

Without legislative action, the board ruling would produce windfalls for taxpayers in some counties, while tax rates would soar in others.

The proposal before the House would permit the counties to continue their present assessment levels until their next scheduled reappraisals.

Property is reappraised every six years on a staggered basis among the 88 counties.

Frericks . . . HHH, McGovern Set 2nd Debate In California

local athletes as this was the largest contingent of youthful gladiators to ever represent Pickaway County in the State Track Meet.

The winning time in the Class A two-mile run was 9:46.6, while the mile run was captured with a time of 4:31.1.

This was the climax of a fine track season for Frericks who set a Circleville High School record earlier in the season when he soared the discus 172 feet 8 1/2 inches. He also set several meet records during the year in the discus and shot put.

Frericks also set a Circleville record in the shot earlier in the season with a toss of 56 feet 3 inches.

BINKER set a Teays Valley record in the shot during the season while Westfall's Kennedy added a 10.1 mark in the 100-yard dash earlier this year for another Mustang record.

All six of these young men went to the state track meet as one of the top 16 competitors in their event and did themselves up proud.

It was a remarkable year for Circleville who had never had an individual state champion. Suddenly it all fell into place this season and the Tigers came up with three state title holders.

Steve Richards started it off when he won the state cross country title. Mark Davey captured the 185-pound state wrestling crown and Frericks capped it with his award winning effort in the discus.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and George McGovern are heading into their second campaign confrontation in pivotal California still debating the issues of the first—welfare and the war.

Humphrey slapped at McGovern welfare proposals, McGovern at Humphrey's record on Vietnam policy as the two Democratic senators prepared to face each other in a nationally televised appearance tonight.

And Minnesota's Humphrey sought to revive and take over a familiar issue by challenging McGovern to disclose how much money he is spending on the California presidential primary campaign.

There was irony in that, since it was McGovern who first made public his over-all campaign finances, and turned the topic into a major issue at the start of the primary season. That was in New Hampshire, when he was rated at best a long shot in the race.

Now it is McGovern versus Humphrey, head to head, for 271 Democratic presidential nominating votes in the California primary a week away.

Their campaign tone since Sunday night, when they appeared together in a national television interview, indicated the dispute might become even more heated as they meet again.

The television appearances billed as debates but actually joint interviews broadcast by the national television networks, have become centerpiece in the California campaign.

Humphrey planned two campaign appearances in Los Angeles today, then set aside time to prepare for the television appearance. McGovern scheduled a news conference on conversion of the economy to a peacetime basis and cleared his schedule to rest and get ready for the second round.

It will be broadcast on the National Broadcasting Co. pro-

Kite Flier Killed In Fall At Exhibition

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I think we have a problem," the public address announcer said as Robert Kennedy of Escondido, Calif., plummeted from the sky.

Thousands of spectators at Transpo 72, the international transportation exposition, watched Monday as the 26-year-old kite flier fell to his death.

A member of the Australian Birdman Team, Kennedy was killed when he lost control of his kite at an altitude of about 500 feet. He was being pulled into the air at the time by a speeding automobile.

"He was in a steep climb when all of a sudden a gust of wind hit him or something," said Jack Wallace, 31, of Leesburg, Va., who witnessed the accident.

"His feet suddenly flipped over the kite and he landed back on top of it. He yelled, 'Oh, no,' and you could see him kicking and fighting as the kite wrapped around him. As it folded up, he fell straight to the ground, just like a stone."

Kennedy landed in a grassy area at the north end of the runway, away from the spectators' stand but within view of thousands.

A public address announcer was promoting Kennedy's daring when the kite collapsed.

Kennedy, who had been flying his kite professionally for more than three years, was rushed to a medical station by helicopter. A team of three physicians, who pronounced him dead 15 minutes after he fell, said he suffered multiple head injuries and compound fractures throughout the rest of his body.

Three Arrested In Check Thefts

The recent arrest of three persons in Cincinnati by Federal Postal authorities may have cleared up six social security check thefts in Circleville.

The checks belonging to Circleville residents, were reported stolen last December and authorities stated the thefts may have occurred in Chicago, Columbus or Circleville.

Circleville police are urging anyone who is expecting a check through the mail to keep a close watch on their mailbox.
